Legal Action Ordered Against CC Housing Authority

By BOB RAPIDA

"We are not going to footsie around any longer in trying to collect overdue expense money from commissioners of the Contra Costa County Housing Authority."

So stated John Nejedly, Contra Costa District Attorney, while preparing legal action aimed at the collection of the overdue monies.

THE CONTRA COSTA County Grand Jury Wednesday afternoon in Martinez ordered Nejedly to institute the necessary action to obtain the expense money which has been due to the county housing agency since last June.

The money, which was overdrawn by the commissioners on junkets to the east coast was ordered to be repaid by the 1957-58 Contra Costa Grand Jury.

When that jury went out of office in July, the collection problem was turned over to the present jury.

By October, it was learned that a very small portion of the $1550 owed had been paid. Again it was learned that in November there was still a considerable amount due.

EX-DISTRICT attorney Francis Collins was ordered in December by the Grand Jury to make collection of the debt by the time his term of office expired.

The Jury was informed Wednesday that money was still due from two commissioners, one who has resigned from the commission and the jury ordered the legal action to be taken.

Nejedly stated that he did not know whether he would take civil or criminal action in his attempt to collect the remaining monies.

"I'LL HAVE TO familiarize myself with the background of the case and find out why notes were permitted to be signed in the first place," Nejedly stated.

"A note is about the sloppiest way of trying to collect anything and I" have to see if there should not have been criminal action taken in the first place.

"If the facts in the case warrant it, I just may have to seek an indictment for misappropriation of public funds," Nejedly concluded.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT of the grand jury's action was made by Edward Valentino, jury foreman.

The Sun, early in 1958, learned that commissioners of the Housing Authority had spent some $18,000 in expenses for trips to the east and in several portions of California over a three-year period.

This information was turned over to past grand jury foreman William Hale Jr. and the grand jury's housing authority committee chairman George Johnston.

THE GRAND JURY then ordered some $1550 of the $18,000 to be repaid within "30 days at 4 per cent interest."

Three commissioners were involved in the repayment orders: Gerould Gill, chairman, who has paid his debt of $685; James Woods, who has now resigned from the commission, $409, and Edward Nichols who had an overdraft of $485.55.

The Contra Costa Housing Authority is, in part, a portion of teh executive branch of the federal government.

It is under the direction of the Federal Home and Housing Agency and the Public Housing Administration.

No local tax monies are used for the operation of the authority, since it is supported by rents paid by occupants of low rent housing areas.

FEDERAL MONIES are used, however, for the administration of the local housing agency.

At present, commissioners are appointed by supervisors to serve four year terms on the commission.

Commissioner Ouster Sought by Grand Jury

District Attorney Ordered To Investigate Procedure

Contra Costa's District Attorney was ordered by the Grand Jury to investigate legal procedures to seek the removal of Edward Nichols, Contra Costa County Housing Authority Commissioner, from office.

The grand jury's action, taken Wednesday in Martinez was spurred by Edward Valentino, grand jury foreman.

VALENTINO stated that the request was made by the grand jury because "Nichols has failed to repay overdrawn expense money to the housing authority.

Nichols was one of three men ordered by the 1957-58 and 1958-59 grand juries to repay overdrawn monies.

The other men are Gerould Gill, commission chairman, who has returned $685 to the housing authority, and James Woods, who has resigned as a commissioner, but still owes a portion of his $409 overdraft.

JOHN A. NEJEDLY, district attorney, stated that he did not as yet know what legal action he would take, but would investigate the background of the case.

The investigations of the grand jury were first brought about by Fred Anthon, suspended maintenance director of the authority, early in 1957. Anthon charged that there had been "irregularities in the operation of the authority."

Anthon's charges were first revealed in The Sun and these same charges led to the conviction of Ex-Housing Authority Executive Director Ronald Howard in Federal court.

HOWARD IS NOW serving an 18-month prison sentence for theft of government property.

At the same time that Anthon leveled his charges against Howard, he also charged George Weiss with selling his car to a Walnut Creek auto dealer who in turn sold it to the housing authority.

Ivan Goyak, retired county supervisor from the first district, as his last official act in office Monday, replaced Weiss on the housing authority board.

WEISS WAS REPLACED by Raymond Marcos of Richmond.

Other commissioners on the housing authority board are Wilfred Carpenter and Al Aljets.

Anthon also charged Gill with using housing authority funds for an employee party at his Marsh Creek Lodge.

Gill countered to the charge by saying "the employees got more than there money's worth."

He admitted that the housing authority had paid some $500 for the party.

The commissioners are appointed by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors to four-year terms.

Gill is the appointee of W. G. "Bud" Buchanan, district IV; Wilfred Carpenter, Joe Silva, district V; Al Aljets, Mel Nielsen, district II; Marcos, Goyak, district I, and Nichols, Tom Coll, district III.

Hundreds Expect To Help Plant Trees in Orinda

Hundreds of Orindans tomorrow will help plant trees along roadsides, to help make their community more beautiful and to help halt erosion.

"The response from both adult and youth groups has been really enthusiastic," said Mrs. Paul Pollaczek, chairman of the Orinda Beautification Committee.

THOSE TAKING part will meet at 9 a.m. at the Associated Service Station in the Village.

William Penn Mott and Ray Thayer, county landscape architect, will direct the planting of thousands of evergreen seedlings on the freeway behind Orinda village.

They will be assisted by the following Orinda foresters: Bill Branch, Rudy Grah, John McGuire, Galent Trostle and Bob Stevens.

IN ADDITION, the following captains will supervise planting groups: Don Anderson, Eric Nielsen, Richard Bartle, Thomas Sibary, Gordon Lindberg, Hank Zacharias, Glen Chittenden, Bob Wale and Bill Koch.

Orinda Jaycees will be out, as will Orinda Association directors, members of the Orinda Planning and Beautification Committees, teachers and members of the Lost Valley Improvement Association.

At least seven Boy Scout troops and five Girl Scout troops with some fathers and mothers will participate. Members of the Wheel Club of Miramonte will also help.

"THIS IS only a beginning for the freeway," said Mott, "We will be putting in background planting this year and can add more seedlings next year and the year after."

Dr. Ralph Hall and Roger Bond, scoutmaster of Troop 247, said that a program of conservation and community service could be worked out with the scout troops to help the seedlings survive the first two years.

"Bring shovels and mattacks," said Bill Branch, Orinda forester who will help demonstrate techniques Saturday morning. "These should be marked with the owner's name, to avoid a mix-up of tools."

Traffic control will either be set up at the intersection of Camino Sobrante and the freeway or the freeway area on which planting is to be done will be roped off and cars will be routed through the Village Saturday morning.

Only designated workers will be allowed on the freeway slopes.

AS SCOUTS arrive they will be given an identification tag and asked to sign their names in a log book.

Sandwiches, coffee, hot chocolate and doughnuts will be served at noon to all those who have planted seedlings or helped on the project.

The refreshment committee will meet at 10 a.m. at the Community Church to make sandwiches. The committee consists of representatives of the following Orinda women's organizations: Orinda Garden Club, Hilltop Garden Club, Orinda Valley Garden Club, Country Home and Garden Club, AAUW, Orinda Art Center and Orinda Woman's Club.

The "Debs," a Miramonte girls' club, will serve the refreshments. Mrs. A. P. Reck is chairman of the refreshment committee, assisted by Mmes. Clinton Scarich, Frederick Rust, Basil Winslow, Robert Patmont and Paul Pollaczek.

Brown Flips Badge In '60 Supervisor Race

Ex-Sheriff Harry A. Brown is the first candidate to throw his badge into the race for Second District Supervisor in the 1960 county elections.

Brown made his announcement as he threw in the towel on his recount attempt to prove that he had really been reelected Sheriff of Contra Costa.

ALL HIS RECOUNT helped to prove was that Walter F. Young of Lafayette got 217 more votes than had been originally tabulated by county election officials.

Brown did not indicate what his immediate plans are, but stated he had "several irons in the fire."

Mel F. Nielsen, incumbent Second District supervisor, stated, with a gleam in his eye: "I'm really glad to hear that Brown will run against me in 1960."

BUT, BROWN has several other problems before him:

Contra Costa County has refused to accept an inventory from former Sheriff Harry A. Brown which fails to account for thirty-seven pieces of property, including a $125 submachine-gun, two rifles, three pistols and a shotgun.

Brown was not present at Tuesday's sesison of the county supervisors to explain the shortages, submitted through the office of County Auditor Howard McNamer.

McNAMER LISTED 23 of the items as of "nominal" value, but placed a total of $888 on the remaining property.

The inventory list has to be "cleared," the board said, before Brown's $30,000 performance bond can be exonerated.

McNamer said some of the items could be listed because of clerical errors in signing out the property. He was ordered to recheck for possible error, attempt to recover the equipment and report to the board Tuesday.

REPORTEDLY Nielsen, after hearing that Brown was "shooting" for his job as supervisor, stated that it was his sincere hope that the sub-machine gun is found in the "very near future."

Meanwhile, Young was quietly making changes in his department.

The changes follow appointment of Harry D. Ramsay of Concord, former chief investigator for the district attorney's office, as lieutenant in charge of the criminal division. Ramsay replaces Inspector Ray L. Stoffels of Concord.

Stoffels, Young said today, will be in charge of the Oakley Sheriff's substation and will continue to work in the investigation of the murder of wealthy Orinda collection agency owner William (Roy) Anderson.

However, Ramsay will be in charge of the probe.

AT OAKLEY, Stoffels will take command from Deputy Sheriff Richard Cakebread of Brentwood. Cakebread will remain at the substation.

In the second change Lee T. Gallamore, until yesterday a lieutenant and acting undersheriff, was assigned as a detective in the criminal division.

Gallamore, who was named a lieutenant by former Sheriff Harry A. Brown but missed by five days completing a six month probationary period entitling him to permanent status in the rank, was downgraded to make room for Ramsay's appointment.

TWO OTHER officers who, like Gallamore had not completed probationary service, also were downgraded.

They are Edwin Stockman of El Cerrito, whose post as detective was filled by Gallamore, and Leslie Currier of Concord, whose post as a grade II deputy was taken by Stockman. Currier reverts to a deputy grade I.

Young said Stockman will be assigned to the Richmond substation and Currier to the Martinez office.

Detective-trainee John Coulson of Lafayette was reassigned as a grade II deputy with the patrol division at Martinez.

Commuters Ask for Bus Subsidy

Suggestion by Orindan May Hatch Legislation

By BILL HINES

The responsibility for efficient, swift and safe transportation of human beings from Pleasant Hill, Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Orinda to and from their places of employment lies with community and state governments.

That's the gist of a statement given The Sun by D. W. Thickens, president of the Contra Costa County Commuters Association.

THICKENS SUGGESTED that indirect subsidies by the state—authorized through action by the state legislature—could result in placement of additional buses by Western Greyhound Inc., on the runs between the central part of the county and Oakland-San Francisco.

"Relief from state taxes on Diesel fuel, tires and vehicles could result in the addition of more buses," Thickens declared.

"Such relief could be predicated on actual provision of such additional service by Greyhound, based on a trial period of six months or a year.

"At the end of such a period, the bus line could be reimbursed through tax relief based on actual additional expense.

"THE TRIAL—and the determination of the exact amount of cost and of tax relief subsidy—could be policed by the California Public Utility Commission."

Thickens' statement was made because of a letter sent to the association and to the Orinda Chamber of Commerce by Miss Mary E. Gallagher, 15 Warford Terrace, Orinda.

Here's what she wrote:

"A wish for 1959—that arrangements for more seating spaces on the buses coming into Orinda in the morning would be made.

"BEFORE THE BUS leaves Walnut Creek, Lafayette, or wherever it comes from, the driver could check and allow at least four seats for us.

"It's hard standing so long, believe me, I know.

"I have moved here only recently (June) and I love Orinda, but I've had to stand every morning to San Francisco with the exception of two times.

"I have been ill and on many an occasion I didn't think I would be able to take riding the center aisle.

"ORINDA HAS many commuters. Maybe we could have a few buses originate here.

"YOU should stand in the shelter house if it is filled and wait for a bus—you'd be surprised at the number of people waiting for Standing Room Only between 6:30 and 1:15 a.m.

"Many Orindans boarding the bus with me — and, of course, standing—have walked quite a distance from their homes and then have an eight-hour job ahead of them! Often the buses pass us by because of no standing room.

"PLEASE, PLEASE — SEE WHAT YOU CAN DO!!

"ANOTHER SUGGESTION . . . STEPS UNDER THE OVERPASS.

The men can take the shortcut they've worn for themselves but we women have to take the "scenic route." But at 6:45 a.m. it isn't appreciated.

"Why not put steps along the man-made foot path? That would be a big improvement!

"Thank you for any consideration.

"M. GALLAGHER."

"We certainly sympathize with her situation," Thickens said. "It' been a problem with us for a long time.

"Our service committee is aware of the situation and we are constantly searching for an answer.

"My personal view would be that if an incentive could be established for Greyhound to provide more buses through state tax subsidy the problem could be solved.

"I don't know—the trouble with the whole thing is that Orinda is at the end of the commuter line—and the area is constantly growing.

"I THINK THAT we could have a bus or two which would originate in Lafayette. The reason I say Lafayette is simply because freeway entries and exits make no provision for a bus turn-around in Orinda."

Thickens pointed out that the problem of keeping traffic flowing is one vital to the interests of every community, and that therefore it is a problem for communities, and not just for the carriers providing commuter service at little or no profit.

"Better bus service might mean the equivalent of an extra lane on the freeway—and you and I know how much freeways, and the constant expansion of them, cost the taxpayer," Thickens commented.

"THAT'S why a subsidy through tax rebate might actually save the taxpayer money.

"I sympathize with Miss Gallagher, and the hundreds like her.

"Her letter shows sincerity and that she, like the Commuters Association, is attempting to help in an intelligent, unprejudiced effort to solve the problem."

Sheriff Young Dedicates Department to Taxpayers

A quiet, mild mannered, veteran sheriff's deputy became enforcement officer Monday in Contra Costa County's chief law ceremonies before the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors.

Walter F. Young, a former deputy sheriff and sheriff's sergeant, was sworn in as Contra Costa County Sheriff succeeding Harry A. Brown of Alamo.

YOUNG, a resident of Lafayette, as his first official act pointed out to his own department employees that he and they are "employees—first and foremost—of the taxpayer."

Young outlined his principles and his expectations of each member of his department, including himself.

"You and I are employees of the taxpayer. With this in mind I am asking that each of us practice economies whenever possible and to be extremely careful in the use of all county properties.

"Employees will be expected to observe the chain of command and to discuss individual problems with immediate supervisors before consulting me."

THE NEWLY elected sheriff continued by commenting that "a team is only as strong as its weakest link and I am confident that each of us will be a team player and that no one will consciously wish to weaken the team by not observing proper administrative procedure in bypassing supervisors."

Young pledged to his department that each employee would be treated equitably and fairly and all employees were assured that he would help them in the performance of duties "so that we may together give the citizens the best law enforcement possible for their tax dollars."

Young, who worked out of the now defunct Walnut Creek Substation of the sheriff's office, and the Lafayette Substation, has worked in nearly every department of the sheriff's office, criminal, patrol, investigative and administrative.

YOUNG STATED there would be some changes in the administration of the department, but careful consideration would be given to each operation before changes are made.

As for the future, Young stated: "We of the sheriff's department will do our utmost to assure the protection of life and property of all the residents of the county to the best of our ability."

Principal to Talk To Pine Grove Parents Tuesday

First business meeting of the Pine Grove Parents Club, entitled "Pine Grove Reports," will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the auditorium of Pine Grove School.

Speaker will be Ted Boyce, principal, who will report on student placements, grades, pressures and expectations at the seventh and eighth grade levels.

Mrs. Frank Shirey, president of the Pine Grove Parents Club, will conduct a brief business meeting before the talk."

Various committee reports on the activties of the Parents Club will be given.

The club donated money to purchase several scientific charts for the science room, and a new phonograph this month.

Glen MacNicklas, director of curriculum, will speak briefly, and a question period will follow the talk by Boyce.

All parents of Pine Grove students are urged to attend the meeting for an explanation of "Pine Grove Reports."

Organ Society To Hear Guest

The Walnut Creek Hammond Organ Society will have as guest artist Dave Quinlan of Benicia on Monday evening at 8 p.m. at the Sportsman's Club, 2800 North Main Street, Walnut Creek.

All members are invited to attend, there will be a 75 cents charge for guests.

Expected Rain Finally Arrives

The rains finally came, whipped by a gale that Monday ripped limbs from trees, blew merchants' signs askew and broke power lines. No serious damage was reported.

Appointive Superintendent Suggested by Grand Jury

The Contra Costa County Grand Jury resolved Wednesday in Martinez that the Superintendent of Schools should be an appointive position.

The grand jury informed Contra Costa legislators that it would be in favor of the county superintendent being appointed by the county board of education rather than by vote of the people.

THE COUNTY BOARD of education is an elective body.

Edward Valentino, grand jury foreman, stated that the jury felt that the position might become "too political" if it remained an elective one.

The recommendation that the county legislators be asked to change the law was made by the education committee of the grand jury.

IN A SECOND action, the grand jury resolved to ask legislators George Miller (D), Martinez; S. C. Masterson (D), Richmond, and Jerome Waldie (D), Antioch, to prepare legislation allowing that evidence presented by unnamed informants be made permissible in court.

Valentino pointed out that the law, at present, forbids the introduction of evidence of unnamed informants in court.

Valentino noted that the changes in the law would be most helpful in narcotics cases when informants must remain unknown if they are to continue to be useful to law enforcement agencies.

THE NEXT meeting of the full grand jury will be February 4 in Martinez, Valentino announced.

The jury will be asked at that time, Valentino commented, to consider legal action against commissioners of the Contra Costa Housing Authority and their possible removal from office. (See separate stories in this issue of The Sun.)

Chamber Tries To Clear Walks

The Orinda Chamber of Commerce, meeting Tuesday in Casa Orinda, decided to try to eliminate news stand racks in front of the American Trust Building, and to protest to merchants who block sidewalks with merchandise.

John Ogden, chamber president, reported that the new Shell service station has added many more parking places for commuters, and will help keep spaces on street available to shoppers.

Ramsey Underwood reported on the success of the project to put trees in redwood boxes along Orinda streets.

Ned de Laveage suggested that there should be an improved stop sign at the intersection of Camino.

There have been five accidents there in the few months since the bypass opened, declared de Laveaga.

Lower Insurance Rates and Virus

Read Sun reports in this section.

Rating Bureaus Drop County Auto Insurance Costs

Contra Costa County motorists are in line for automobile insurance rate cuts, according to two rating organizations.

The National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters and the National Automobile Underwriters Association announced yesterday that rates in Contra Costa would drop $10 on comprehensive and $50 deductible collision coverage for popular priced family cars with no male drivers under 25, and $3 for property damage and bodily injury on policies of $5000, $10,000 and $5000 in each of those categories.

ALTHOUGH THE premium cuts are now in effect, some company rates are lower than the two rating bureau figures, according to one local insurance man.

"Direct writers have rates which have been and will continue to be lower than the rating bureau suggested premiums," he stated.

"The automobile insurance rate changes are based upon the record of accident loss costs incurred by insured motorists in the county," the two rating organizations said. "It is part of a countrywide program to adjust rates according to the latest record chalked up by the policyholders themselves.

"RATE CHANGES vary from territory to territory within the state, according to the record of losses rolled up by insured cars in the territory. Thus if insureds in one territory have a better record than those in another territory they pay lower rates, if the record is worse they pay higher rates. Rates also vary according to how the risk is classified."

The National Bureau said that for some motorists rates are increased; for others rates are reduced or remain unchanged.

For cars owned or principally operated by young males, maximum increase for such a risk in the county is $28; maximum decrease is $11.

CAR OWNERS qualifying for farmer rates will continue to receive a discount of 30 per cent from the rates that would otherwise apply to their private passenger cars because of the more favorable experience of this class of risks.

"Increased liability insurance rates in some areas are needed because on the average it is costing the insurance companies more money to settle claims incurred by their policyholders," the Bureau stated.

"When it issues a liability policy, the company assumes responsibility for defending the policyholder against suit for damages and for paying, within the limits and coverage of the policy, the costs of claims incurred by the policyholder in accidentally killing and injuring people and damaging property of others.

"Like almost everything else, bodily injury liability claim costs have continued to rise. The costs of treating and rehabilitating victims of automobile accidents are still climbing. There is also the factor of increased compensation for lost earnings while accident victims are laid up," the companies said.

"These are some reasons why courts and juries are awarding larger verdicts for death and bodily injury in negligence cases. These awards in turn influence the level at which companies must settle claims when their policyholders are liable for killing or maiming others."

THE COST of automobile collision losses and property damage claims, most of which result from damage to or destruction of motor vehicles, is still headed upward because repair and replacement costs in such cases continue to increase, the two rating organizations stated.

In addition to the upward trend in claim costs, companies are confronted with continuing high claim and loss frequency, that is, the percentage of insured cars incurring claims and losses is high, the organizations stated.

"Despite the slower but steady upward trend in automobile repair costs," the National Automobile Underwriters Association said, "the average rate level for material damage coverages was reduced three and three-quarters per cent because of the introduction of a change in the rating formula that allocates a larger share of the premium dollar to the payment of claims.

"MATERIAL DAMAGE rates vary not only by territory and risk classification, but also by the initial value of the car.

"For example, the new rates mean that the combined full comprehensive and $50 deductible collision premiums on a new, popular-priced family car with no male drivers under 25 years of age will decrease from $95 to $85.

"For the same popular-priced car which is owned or principally operated by a man under 25, the decreases range from $1 to $24.

"It is now possible to save 55 per cent of the base comprehensive premium (previously only 40 per cent) when the $50 deductible comprehensive coverage is purchased," the NAUA emphasized. "The deductible does not apply and full coverage is afforded on fire losses or theft when the entire automobile is taken.

"THE PASSENGER comprehensive rate changes reflected in today's new rates are not to be confused with the recently introduced comprehensive surcharge premium for 1959 passenger automobiles having any one pane of glass listing at $100 or more.

These surcharges (effective December 17, 1958) are $3 for full comprehensive and $1 for deductible comprehensive.

"Commercial automobile fire rates have been reduced 10 per cent," the NAUA said, "and commercial comprehensive rates, depending on distance of operation of vehicle, have been reduced a maximum of 7 per cent."

Board Okays New Building

Congested Classrooms To Continue in Orinda

By BILL HINES

The Orinda Union School District will "proceed immediately" to build a new schoolhouse on its 32-acre Wagner Ranch site northeast of San Pablo Highway between Bear Creek Road and Manzanita Drive.

The school board Monday night unanimously voted to construct the new building after hearing a report on burgeoning Orinda school population by Joseph Sheaff, superintendent.

Anderson & Simonds, Oakland, have been retained as architects.

THE BOARD made no decision as to cost or number of rooms for the new school, to be ready for use by the fall of 1960.

The "Wagner School"—yet to be officially named—will relieve present congestion at Sleepy Hollow, and expected overcrowding at Orinda School, according to Sheaff.

"Congestion at Sleepy Hollow is bad enough right now," he said. "I expect it to be worse next year.

"At present, conditions at Orinda School are pretty fair. But it, too, will present a too-many-pupils problem in 1960, if my estimates are anywhere near correct."

Tentative plans call for the new school to house about 200 students, Sheaff said.

ORINDA SCHOOL authorities try to follow state recommendations of not more than 33 to the classroom, Sheaff pointed out.

The decision of the board to call for bids on still another school building was made after Sheaff presented an Enrollment Projection Report looking ahead to 1965.

This report will be reviewed in detail in next Friday's Sun.

Sheaff noted that only one school district in the county—Moraga—exceeded even fractionally the enrollment growth of Orinda District schools.

Orinda's present school population represents an increase of 12 per cent over last year's figure.

CURRENT ENROLLMENT is 3045, a record. Each month so far this year Orinda School enrollment has exceeded all previous figures.

On this date a year ago, Orinda School population was 3028.

In 1964, according to Sheaff's projection, the result of many months of study, school attendance will reach 4762.

"The new school on the Wagner Ranch site is going to meet a real need," he said.

"If my prediction is right, we'll have real trouble with overcrowded classrooms this year at Sleepy Hollow.

"But in 1960 the new school will be ready, and at least temporarily our troubles will be over."

ACTING UPON the advice of Deputy District Attorney Charles Hemming, the school board voted to release Bayshore Construction Co., which erred in going over a property line and cutting down old pine trees on Pine Grove School property, from any further damage liability.

The release was made contingent upon the receipt of either cash or immediately negotiable check for $1806, triple actual damage as determined by an appraiser, from Associated Investment Co., parent firm of Bayshore.

In connection with the anticipated receipt of $1806 from Associated Investment for carelessly destroying irreplaceable trees, Sheaff noted that the current annual school budget is $1,200,747.

"I LOVED those trees," Sheaff said this summer when he returned from a vacation and found they had been hacked down.

In the absence of Chairman Nathan Gray, Prof. Karl Schevill presided at the school board meeting.

He appointed J. Gordon Ainsworth, trustee, as representative on the Acalanes School District Transportation Committee.

Members of the board voted to attend the dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. January 22 of trustees representing Acalanes, Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Canyon, and Moraga districts.

Acalanes High School District Superintendent Neil Parsons will preside at the session at Acalanes High School.

THE ORINDA BOARD decided that it will "look around" for still another new school site, and determine on more building in the near future.

"Right now we have a definite problem in housing youngsters at seventh and eighth grade levels," Sheaff told trustees.

A special meeting has been set for January 19 at which the board will discuss with architects specific plans for the new school on the Wagner Ranch site.

The architectural firm is the one now supervising construction of the school on the Inland Valley site just off Ivy Drive near the Moraga Highway.

TRUSTEES ACCEPTED the resignation of Mrs. Eilene Raiden.

Her resignation will become effective January 26, as will those of three other current instructors, two of whom are married, one of whom plans to wed in the near future.

Employment of four new teachers as replacements was approved.

They are the Mesdames Sheila Carmassi, Doris Chambers, Carol Murray and Miss Elizabeth Burke.

Trustees listened attentively to a report by Mrs. Marion Lutz on a recent Speech Conference in Long Beach.

PROUDLY, SHE noted that new suggested techniques in teaching correct speech and proper diction, discussed as idealistic theories at the convention, had already long been practiced in Orinda schools.

At the January 19 meeting the board is expected to adopt a statement of policy concerning the proper functions of the school district and its rules and regulations.

The statement has long been under study, has been revised and amended many times.

The complete statement, after its official adoption, will be published in The Sun.

Superbia Scrapplings

A CHRISTMAS MORNING GLORY STORY . . . Paula Collings Reese of Ardilla Rd. was up & about Christmas Day w/her husband Don, dghtr. Karen, son David. Opening presents about the tree, wading through tissue, all the time keeping a nice little "secret" all to herself.

She set about stuffing the turkey, popped it into the oven, then breezed into the bedroom as her dghtr. asked how many places to set at the table. Breezing back out w/her bag packed, Paula said "Everyone as usual except me" and blithely bounced off.

TO THE HOSPITAL where an hr. later at 1 p.m., her own real Christmas Carol rang out through the corridors. Back home awaiting the new little "Carol," a bassinette Paula had trimmed w/red ribbon through white wicker, tiny holly bouquets & bearing a tag "To Don, Karen & David from Santa."

Congratulations, Family Reese, and Say! Whatever happened to that Stork Bird anyway?

BEFORE WE get to NY's NEWS, how about a few more Christmas Leftovers? Like—A sure sign that The Season Is Over was the dwindling supply of hot dogs & beans in 3 of Orinda's stores this week. We're suddenly all back to the budget. Or tired, tired of Living too High on the Hog. And/or Turkey!

At Orinda School, Briran Moriarity, chosen to operate the curtain for the annual Christmas play, practiced diligently for weeks, getting the right cues for rise & fall of curtain, really worked himself hard. Came day of play, GUESS WHO was absent! The Clair Hardings' red-headed son Reed, looking more like a little Leprechaun, played the part of "The Littlest Angel."

AT SLEEPY HOLLOW School, Orinda Woman's Club was holding its Dec. meet, w/students as well as costumed members waiting backstage to entertain as soon as the business was respectfully submitted for the night.

But up came an amendment needing amending, and well, you know The Ladies. So on & on into the night while the perspiring program people waited not so patiently. Suddenly, the fire drill. Saved By The Bell. By the time everyone got back inside, the amendment, it was decided, could have its amendage amended at next month's meet. And the Show Went On!

MOST TOUCHING Christmas present—a box of tiny soap from our 7-yr. old son, each little bar inscribed "Dear Guest". . . and now we know why our eldest asked TOO loudly in Lucky's one day—"Hey, Mom, is your hair oily or normal?"—Our present from him—two bottles of BRECK!

The Jim Hupp Family, w/long-gone tall son David home for the holidays, were a family portrait dining at the Danville Hotel last Sunday and found that as late as that, Jan. 4, Christmas Carols were STILL ringing forth from the Frontier Restaurant.

AND TALK ABOUT leftovers, these probably set the record for longevity. We mean the Christmas cookies one Hausfrau found when she was hunting more cannisters for this yr's. batch. Seems Dec. '57, w/Young Fry always stuffing, she had purposely hidden away a container of fancy ones so they'd last through the holidays. They did, all righty! And were STILL edible.

AN EL TOYONAL matron, up before dawn on Christmas Eve morn, was aghast to observe someone going down the driveway, a big bundle slung over his back. She knew it couldn't be Santa (or coud it?), or was it someone looting her garage of all the Christmas gear? Anyhow she hollered out shrilly to inquire who was there—and a quiet voice came through—"It's just me, Ma'am, the Garbage Man". . . Nerves, nerves!

Happy Noggins, Egg Nog, Nodding New Year

The year was young, last Wetsday, New Year's Eve, and Orinda was lit up like a Christmas Tree. People partying all over, getting there by foot, horse or wagon.

OAK SPRINGS Clubhouse was filled w/friends of both the Martin Colts & the Don Beitlers who co-hosted a Cozy Auld Lang Syne & midnite buffet. Caught in the confetti shower, dancing & toasting were Muriel & Frank Shannon, George & Nina Weldon, the Stan Stanleys, etcetc & arriving at 3 AYEM from another tardy party at the Alameda O Club, the Volney Plumbs, the Jim Dennings.

More merrymakers . . . Over at the Norman Manns on Spring Rd. Champagne Toasts were shared by Donna & Warren Newfield,

Rotarians Hear Speakers Discuss Incorporation

The pros and cons of the possibility of the incorporation of the "Town of Lafayette" were discussed at the regular Thursday noon meeting of the Lafayette Rotary Club at El Nido Restaurant.

In his opening remarks, President John Lindberg, said, "I welcome the discussion which is presently to take place on this subject which is so important to all of us. The founders of Rotary very wisely laid down the principle that Rotary Clubs, as clubs, could not become involved on one side or the other of political questions; but that it was incumbent on the individual Rotarian to very definitely inform himself regarding, and actively entering into, any activity affecting the potential development of his community, and that the club should be used as a forum to present to the members both sides of important community problems."

THE PROGRAM WAS moderated by William Zion, an outstanding student of political science, who heads the incorporation committee: "We began our study of the incorporation problem in the Lafayette area," said Zion, "with open minds to try and see if this action would cure some of the ills that we complain of with-unit for densely settled urban out also producing too many undesirable results.

"After assembling and weighing data the original fact-finding committee felt that the incorporation of this area would produce a better climate for the growth and development of the area than presently exists, and that it would be wise to present the entire problem to the residents and property owners of the community by means of an election and ask them to decide what course should be adopted."

The case for incorporation was presented by Ted Barcelon, a member of the Incorporation Committee and a long time resident of Lafayette. "The conty," said Barcelon, "was never intended to be the administrative areas; it should not be called upon, and its entire administrative strucure is to archaic to respond to the normal governmental demands of the relatively densely settled communities.

Carpet Beetles Multiply, Threaten Homes in County

Ernest Campbell, manager of the Contra Costa Mosquito Abatement District, this week alerted citizens to the fact that "carpet" beetles are increasing in some sections in alarming proportions.

The grub, or larvae, of these beetles do serious and costly damage in homes.

These larvae are the immature forms, comparable to caterpillars of butterflies.

THE LARVAE feed, grow and molt, or shed their skins six to ten times or more, before going into the pupal stage. The pupal stage may be as short as two weeks, after which the winged adult beetle emerges.

In general, the winged adults live for two weeks or so in the spring or early summer and feed on the nectar of flowers.

Outdoors the female may deposit her eggs on or near natural feeding sources, where the larvae confine their activity to the business of scavengers feeding on corpses, but specializing on hides, hair, claws, dried insects, feathers, or other dried animal parts. The larval stage lasts about a year.

With the advent of civilization, these beetles have taken up residence in the homes of man and spread from home to home.

IN HOMES the female deposits her eggs in such places as lint behind baseboards, in floor cracks and other crevices of all sorts, or directly on carpets, woolen and other stored goods. The eggs hatch into larvae in five to 15 days.

To develop and mature, the larvae must eat. In homes they damage woolen goods, such as carpets and clothes, fur, leather, silk, and under some conditions synthetic fabrics, stored cereal and other commodities. The widespread damage to carpets by these beetles has resulted in them being called "Carpet Beetles."

This damage can be distinguished from that of clothes moths by the absence of webbing spun by clothes moths. And the presence of old larvae skins is a sure sign of carpet beetle infestation.

The larvae are rather small, usually less than ¼ inch long, brown or black, and may appear mottled. They are characteristically hairy, and may be long and narrow with long tail hairs, or short with many tufts of hair or bristles, or may appear to have a hairy fringe on the sides.

OFTEN PEOPLE have observed the larvae in homes and did not know what they were, and so failed to take control measures.

The result has been that when the householder became aware that damage was being done, the infestation and damage had become severe.

To inspect for carpet beetle larvae, move and look at the carpet behind a piece of furniture which normally is stationary, or under objects such as floor lamps that are seldom moved; look in dark places where lint and dust collect, in closets and other dark places where clothing and other goods are stored.

If in doubt as to the identity, take specimens to a commercial pest control operator, or mail or bring to the Contra Costa Mosquito Abatement District, 2699 Concord Avenue, Concord, for identification, Campbell said.

IT IS ADVISABLE to retain the services of a commercial pest control operator to control a severe infestation of these beetles, as they are one of the most difficult home pests to control, Campbell added.

An annual contract with a competent pest control operator for control of a variety of insects may be a worthwhile expenditure for many people who have not considered this possibility, and they may find it less costly than supposed, he said.

County Business Up 8.6 Per Cent, Says Bradstreet

Contra Costa County listed 8.6 per cent more businesses in 1958 than in 1953 according to a report released by Dun & Bradstreet.

Concord realized a 64.2 per cent increase, Walnut Creek a 19.7 per cent gain, Danville 98 per cent, Lafayette 19.1 per cent and Orinda 55.5 per cent increase in the number of businesses in 1958.

"There were 4431 businesses listed this past year in Contra Costa County which is an increase of 352 businesses over 1953," said R. F. Cathcart, district manager of the San Francisco office of Dun & Bradstreet.

Basing his facts on the figures in the current November, 1958, Reference Book, Cathcart points out that the 47 counties of northern California as a whole showed an increase of 4 per cent for this five year period, while the nine Bay Area counties listed 1.1 per cent more businesses than in 1953.

Alameda County, San Francisco County and Solano County listed fewer businesses in 1958.

Using the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book listings as a guide here are the comparative statistics on the industrial development and growth in Contra Costa County by cities:

City	11/53	11/58	Pct. Chng.
Concord	355	583	+64.2
Danville	51	101	+98.0
Lafayette	199	237	+19.1
Orinda	63	98	+55.5
Walnut Creek	390	467	+19.7

Using the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book listings as a guide here are the comparative statistics on the industrial development during the past five years in the county:

Church Council to Hold Annual Dinner, January 21

The Council of Churches of Central Contra Costa County will hold its annual dinner meeting in the Alamo Methodist Church on January 21 at 6:45 p.m.

Reservations for about 250 people have been made.

Rev. Dr. Forrest C. Weir, executive director of the Southern California Council of Churches, will deliver his address entitled, "The Scriptural Imperative that the Churches Work Together."

Before undertaking his present job in Southern California, Dr. Weir was executive director of State Councils of Churches in Mississippi and in Florida.

This Council of Churches is composed of four representatives from each of 27 participating churches.

The pastor of the church is always a representative, and there is a representative from the governing board of each church, someone representing the women's organizations of each church, and usually the director of youth activities representing the young people of the church.

An elected board of directors conducts the affairs of the Council between full meetings of all representatives.

The board of directors has proposed a budget of $17,500 for 1959, from which will be supported full time chaplains for the Juvenile Hall and the County Hospital, and a summer chaplaincy for Boy Scout Camp Wolfboro, in the high Sierras, up above Calaveras Big Trees.

This Council of Churches conducts Sunday School teacher training sessions each October.

On each of the Sunday evenings in last May it conducted a series of lectures on "Youth, Sex and Marriage," which was consistently attended by about 500 young people from the churches, and their youth leaders.

Other than the 27 local churches which are formal members of the Council there are almost twice that many non-member churches which participate from time to time in various of its undertakings.

Currently the Rev. Chauncey Blossom, pastor of the Orinda Community Congregational Church, is president of the Council of Churches, and of its board of directors.

Savings & Loan Has Banner Year

The last six months of 1958 was a banner period for Berkeley Savings and Loan Association.

According to Sherman Miller, executive vice president, resources now stand at an all-time high of $49,999,690.44 as of December 31, 1958.

It's Convenient To Shop at Home

'Crashers' Are on Agenda

How teen-agers feel about party crashing, driving, drinking and curfew regulations are some of the subjects Lt. Robert Bahl of the Concord Police Department will discuss when he addresses members of the Mt. Diablo Council, PTA on Monday at the Contra Costa Real Estate Board Building, Walnut Creek.

The announcement comes from Mrs. Allan Fuller, council president who adds that Lt. Bahl is a Juvenile Officer and a graduate from the Delinquency Institute of the University of California at Los Angeles.

According to Mrs. Lawrence Green, program chairman, the 12:15 noon meeting will begin with registration and refreshments. Following his talk, Lt. Bahl will be available for a question and answer session.

Mrs. Warren Ronneberg, hospitality chairman will be in charge of the hostesses who will represent PTA units from Loma Vista, Crawford Village and Fair Oaks schools.

Realtors Installed by CREA President; Nat'l Pres. Speaks

KEY FIGURES in the real estate business, locally, state-wide and nationally, are these men, who attended the joint-installation of county real estate boards, Tuesday night at the Concord Elks Club. They are, left to right, James Udall, president-elect of the National Association of Real Estate Boards; Bill Hayward, president-elect of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board, and James Clayton, president-elect of the California Real Estate Association. —Sun photo by Richard Morse

Speech Hits Discrimination; Hayward to Presidency

Officers and members of four county real estate boards, including the Contra Costa Real Estate Board, were hosts to James Udall, president-elect of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, and James B. Clayton, president-elect of the California Real Estate Association, Tuesday night at the Concord Elks Club.

Officers and directors, recently elected, were installed by all four boards.

During his talk, Udall said that the U. S. Supreme Court should be deprived of the right to "usurp" the legislative functions of Congress.

HE ALSO HIT the tax discrimination which he said works against the average property owner, and the shortcomings of the urban renewal programs in the United States.

He also added that unions have no place in the real estate business. He told how the teamster unions are organizing real estate salesmen in Seattle.

Udall formerly was president of the California Real Estate Association, and he attended Mt. Diablo High School for one semester.

Master of ceremonies at the meeting was William F. Anderson. CREA president Clayton conducted the installations.

CONTRA COSTA Board officers are as follows: President Bill Hayward, Vice President Ramsey Underwood, Secretary-Treasurer Lewis Reark.

Directors are E. C. Scofield, Jack Steger, Jack Wolverton, Barney Gilbert, Marvin Ross, Bea Gibbs, Lenora Tiedeman and Bob Maxfield.

Concord Board officers are: President Paul Gailus, Vice President Paul Burton, Secretary Margaret Hull Caudel, Treasurer Conrad Wilkie, and directors Bob Tyler and Cecil Rider.

East Contra Costa Board officers are President Joseph White, Vice President William Dickey, Secretary-Treasurer Joseph Rubio, and directors Ralph Garrow and Benjamin Tomlin.

Martinez Board officers are President Frank Ricks, Vice President Melvin Jeppsen, Secretary-Treasurer Ila Snapp and Director Margaret Kalsbeck.

Acalanes Grads Excel As Stanford Students

June, 1958, graduates from Acalanes High School rank fourth in numbers in the freshman class now attending Stanford University, according to a report released by Rixford Snyder, director of admissions at Stanford.

Acalanes Principal Stanley Walgren commenting on the report observed that "the number of students placed at Stanford by Acalanes High this year indicates that Acalanes students continue to meet the high academic entrance requirements set by the Palo Alto university."

According to the Stanford report, Acalanes supplied 14 of the 28 students from Contra Costa County who were accepted for the university's freshman class. Acalanes ranked fourth in the first nine schools listed in the United States as having contributed the largest number of entering students.

Four Acalanes June graduates, Gail Sorem, Anne Monroe, Mike McCardle and Ernest Fox, received Stanford scholarships.

"Although Acalanes is a medium-sized high school it has continued to place a large number of students annually at Stanford in competition with approximately 600 high schools throughout the State of California, many of which are twice the size of the Lafayette school," Walgren observed.

The Lafayette principal added, "the Acalanes faculty is encouraged to find the continued trend of so large a group of students meeting academic entrance requirements, and encouraged as well by the evidence that these students maintain high academic averages at the university."

Gambling Will Not be Allowed Says Brilliant

Persons who violated Walnut Creek's anti-gambling ordinance will be arrested immediately, or in some cases, warned "if sound discretion requires," Walnut Creek Police Chief Leigh Brilliant announced this week.

In a general order addressed to his officers and Police Department civilian employees, Brilliant said "All gambling laws and ordinances regardless of the nature of the violation or the violator will be enforced by each individual police officer at all times, and by each reserve officer while on duty.

The city's gambling Ordinance No. 261 was passed on October 6, 1954 by the city council.

It stipulates that it is unlawful for any person to keep or conduct a house, room, apartment office or place for cards, dice, billiard balls, pool balls and other devices with the exchange of money, checks, chips, credit or any other representative of value or for any merchandise or any other thing of value.

It is also unlawful for a person to permit or allow such activities in his house, room, etc.

IT IS ALSO unlawful for him or her to play, bid or participate in such activities.

It is also unlawful for a person to visit, frequent or be present at or within any house, room, etc., where such activities take place.

Transit District To Move Offices

Headquarters of the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District will be moved from the Claremont Hotel in Berkeley to downtown Oakland Monday.

President Robert K. Barber said the district will occupy the seventh floor of the Plaza Building at 500 15th Street.

Shell Oil Opens New Station Here

Shell Oil Company returned to Orinda last Friday with the opening of a new service station at 11 Orinda Way. This installation was especially designed, equipped and stocked for Orindans' needs.

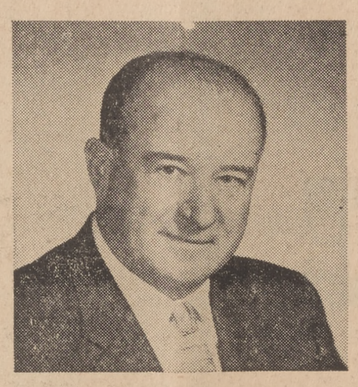
The managing dealers are Clifford Dezell, Jr., Lafayette, and Alfred Carchidi, Concord, both well-known in Contra Costa County.

They have been associated with an automotive dealership in this area for the past 10 years as senior mechanic, assistant parts manager and service manager.

In addition to handling a full line of Shell automotive items, the service center will be equipped for motor tune-up, brake relining, automatic transmission service and wheel balancing.

Dezell and Carchidi recently attended the Shell Advanced Training Center. They received an award from Shell district manager, R. W. Baker, and the district merchandising representative, V. R. Axelson.

Let Your Savings Grow With A Growing Bank!



CHARLES P. PARTRIDGE
Chairman of the Board and President

Progress is Measured by Customers...

1958 was another year of accomplishment for Central Valley National Bank. We opened new banking offices in Sacramento, San Mateo, Orinda and a second Oakland office located at the corner of Lakeshore Avenue and Trestle Glen Road.

We feel that our progress was due in a large measure to the enthusiasm demonstrated by our shareholders and our old and new customers in sending their friends and acquaintances to our bank. Our officers and staff have also done an outstanding job in providing the valuable personal contact that is synonymous with our policy of friendly "down-to-earth" banking.

In the last twelve months our total resources have increased 19%. With 20 offices we are now serving the banking needs of thousands of new customers.

Cordially,
CHARLES P. PARTRIDGE

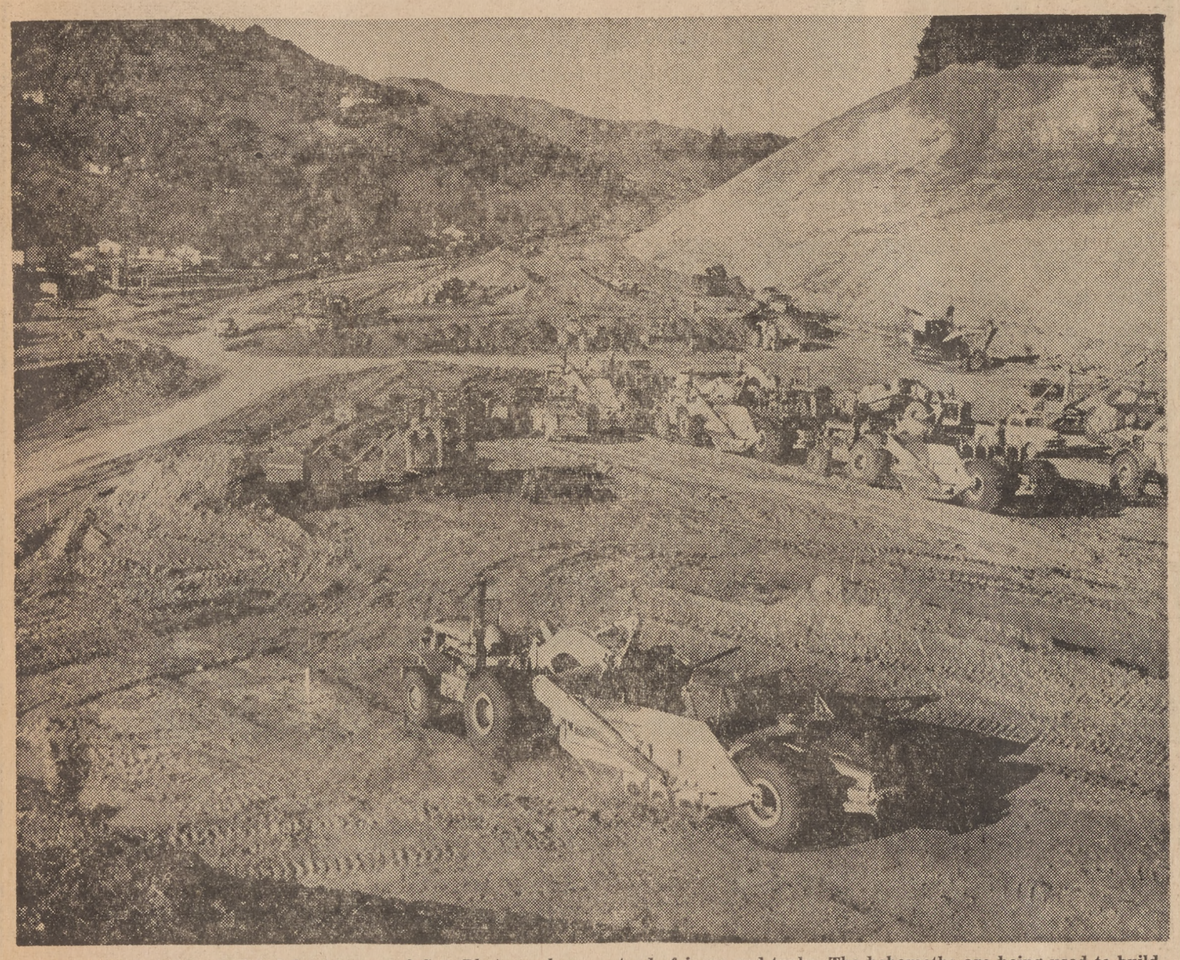
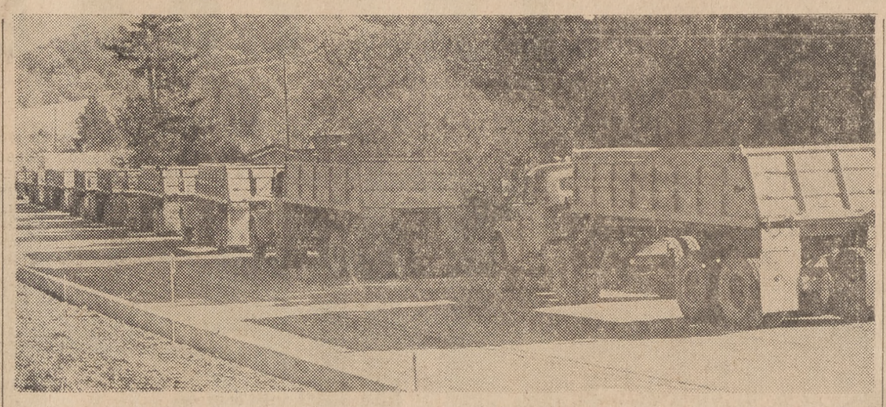
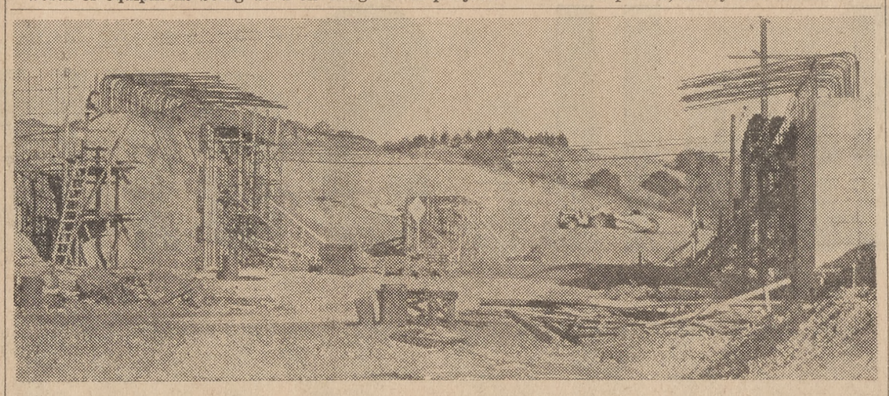
Come Rain or Shine, The Freeway Project Continues ...



THIS EPIC SCENE, depicted by camera of Sun Photographer Erwin Mattson, is one of the fields of man's battle against elements and terrain that are not actively hostile, but unknowingly indifferent to man's needs and purposes. Reminiscent of war-time battlefield, the photo shows "cats" and bulldozers instead of jeeps and tanks. The behemoths are being used to build remaining link in freeway which will join Orinda and Lafayette. Mattson clicked shutter while looking west from point above Acalanes Road and Mt. Diablo Boulevard.



BUT NO WHEELS roll on Saturday, despite urgency of project with contract containing penalty clause if job is not completed on time. Dump truck drivers, cat skinners get Saturdays and Sundays off, even as most of you and I, to rest from hard week's work. The 10 dump trucks seen in this photo (there are more around bend) represent fractional percentage of thousands of dollars worth of equipment being used on Gargantuan project. —Sun photos, all by Erwin Mattson



THE BIG JOB—a $3,662,000 project—of linking Lafayette and Orinda into the freeway is now 30 per cent complete, according to Gordon H. Ball and Ball & Simpson, road contractors. Unusually dry season until recently allowed them to make exceptionally good time on construction, scheduled for completion by the end of this year. Sun photo shows foundation work for overpass being built at Acalanes Road and Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

Soroptimists Will Attend Meeting

Local Soroptimists who will attend the Costalano Area Council meeting of the year were announced by President Alma Blakesley at the first business meeting of 1959, held at the El Nido Tuesday.

Those attending will be President Blakesley, Vice President Edna Bedsworth, Delegates Leahbelle Blodgett and Eda Lippi.

This council meeting is sponsored by the Fairfield-Suisun Soroptimist Club and is being held at the Green Valley Country Club.

The meeting wil lbe under the direction of Mary Lorentzen, district director of the Southwestern Region. The area is composed of Contra Costa, Alameda and Solano counties.

Workshops will be held, starting at 9:30 a.m. and will be followed by luncheon.

Orinda Kirk To Sponsor Card Party

The annual bridge-luncheon of the Orinda Community Church will be at noon and 8 p.m. Tuesday.

The parties will be held in 10 homes in Orinda.

Afternoon party homes are those of the Mmes. Chauncy Blossom, 86 Estates Drive; R. W. Brown, 9 Orchard Court; George Eberhart, 57 Van Ripper Lane; Andrew Hartanov, 151 Camino Don Miguel; Del Kay, 22 Terry Lane; Donald Krotz, 44 Monte Vista Road; John Ogden, 19 Piedmont; Fred Twining, 58 Hacienda Circle, and Robeson Smith, 70 Estates Drive.

St. Mary's College Annual Business Symposium Set

When the business leaders gather at St. Mary's College for this year's Executives' Symposium, educators will have a personal stake in the discussion and conclusions reached, since they must accept and share in the responsibilities of planning for the world of tomorrow.

So stated Brother S. Albert, F.S.C., president of St. Mary's College, in evaluating the plans for the Second Business and Industrial Executives' Symposium, to be held at St. Mary's College January 28 and 29.

"American society is undergoing such radical changes industrially, economically, socially and morally that it is no longer possible for business leaders and educators to afford themselves the luxury of maintaining the 'iron curtain' of communication that was so often the case in the past. To cope with the problems of the new age our society must cease being divided into the two worlds of those who do—the executives, and those who live in the ivory tower—the educators. We can not afford to perpetuate the idea of two lives, the one on campus and the other in the so-called 'real' life. The time has come for both educators and executives to exploit our human resource material in its most efficient manner," Brother Albert pointed out.

"Although the liberal arts curriculum as we percieve it is not a stagnant one and can adapt itself to any challenges life has to offer, it is also my opinion that there are values within man that must be preserved. These cannot be compromised to make way for the expediency of machine age thinking. As we regard the world of tomorrow, the greatest single factor that stands out is what is the place of the human factor in tomorrow's blueprint of progress," Brother Albert added.

"St. Mary's College for almost a hundred years has dedicated itself to the idea of the liberal arts as the most effective means of retaining and teaching of what is the essence of man regardless of age or time. Not only is it necessary that communication exist between the planners for tomorrow and the educators, but the college cannot compromise in any degree with what it considers necessary to the human value structure. Coping with these questions should make this year's Executives' Symposium a significant one," concluded Brother Albert.

Top level executives from both California and the East will gather with educators on the Moraga Valley campus for the two-day conference.

Delivering the keynote address at the opening dinner meeting of the symposium on the evening of January 28 will be General Lucius D. Clay, chairman of the board, Continental Can Company, New York. His topic will be "The Executive and the America of Tomorrow." Willard W. Keith, president of Marsh and McLennan-Cosgrove and Co., Los Angeles, general chairman of the symposium, will be toastmaster.

Speakers on the 29th will be Russell G. Smith, executive vice president, Bank of America, who will speak on "Executive Leadership in the World of Tomorrow;" and Neil Petree, president, Barker Brothers Corp., Los Angeles, whose topic is "The Executive and His Adjustment to New Conditions." The morning session will be chaired by Louis A. Petri, president, United Vintners, Inc., San Francisco, and J. Frank Coakley, district attorney of Alameda County and president of the St. Mary's College Board of Regents, will preside in the afternoon.

Toastmaster at the luncheon meeting will be J. Philip Murphy, president of Judson-Pacific-Murphy Corp., Oakland.

Dr. Mortimer J. Adler, director, Institute of Philosophical Research, San Francisco, will deliver the summarizing "Synthesis and Critique" at the concluding banquet. He will be introduced by Adrien J. Falk, San Francisco, chairman of last year's conference.

Interspersed between the formal, theme-setting speeches will be seminars, including an informal discussion on "The Executive and His Leisure," led by Francis Whitmer, vice president, American Trust Co., San Francisco.

Assisting Keith with arrangements for the symposium is a steering committee headed by Coakley. Other members of the committee are Ralph N. Larson, president, The Morris Plan Company of California; Daniel J. McGanney, vice president, Southern Pacific Company; Frank L. Paganini, president, Security Lithograph Co.; Petri, Benjamin A. Frankel, professor, St. Mary's College, and Brother Xavier, F.S.C., vice president of the college.

Adult Program Still Has Room

The winter quarter of the Acalanes adult program got under way Monday with 70 classes covering a wide variety of subjects. Many of these classes still have openings and, therefore, late registrations will be permitted, it was announced by A. D. Dambacher, director of the adult program.

The adult center offers classes both for non-credit students and those adults who wish to complete their high school graduation requirements.

Some of the courses being offered for the first time include an orientation to Investments, Review of First Aid, and in the field of family life education, a course titled Preparation for Childbirth.

There were over 1850 individuals registered in the adult program during the fall quarter. It is expected that an equal number of the adults of our community will participate this quarter, Dambacher stated.

For further information, interested persons are directed to call the adult office, YE 5-0170.

Mrs. Kora Powell, Long Time Resident, Dies

Mrs. Kora Meador Powell passed away in her sleep December 26 at the age of 86 years, in Lafayette.

Mrs. Powell was born in 1872 in Milan, Missouri. Her parents were Jane and John Meador, and she crossed the plains with them and their family in a covered wagon train over the Oregon Trail. The family settled in Asotin, Washington, as one of the first white families in the county.

Kora Meador married David Owen Powell in 1898, and they resided in Lewiston, Idaho, until 1909, when they, with their daughter, Fern, came to California.

BEFORE COMING to Lafayette they lived in Sebastopol, California, where for 30 years they owned an apple orchard. David Powell will be remembered in Lafayette as one of the early developers in this area in 1936 when he was in the real estate business. Mr. Powell died in 1942.

In Lafayette, Mrs. Powell has been active for the past 25 years in civic and social organizations. She was a charter member of the Lafayette Women's Club, serving throughout the years as president, secretary, historian and as a member of the building committee.

It was while she was a member of this committee that the present site of the club was acquired. It was a great source of satisfaction to her that, while she was still living, the building site was bought, since she had been working toward this project for many years.

Mrs. Powell was a charter member of the library board of directors for the branch of the County Library in Lafayette. She served on this board for 20 years until the time of her death. In November of this year she was made a director emeritus of the board.

SHE WAS ALSO a charter member of the Golden Key Club and a member of the Valley Belles, both clubs for elderly people.

Mrs. Powell is remembered by her many friends as an individualist and a crusader for all things she believed were right. She was an avid reader even in her last years and a constant patroness of the library.

Her home, at 3562 Boyer Circle, was a gathernig place for her friends who enjoyed the creative works of art she had done over a period of many years. Her home was filled with her oil paintings, ceramics, and many large braided wool rugs. A great part of Mrs. Powell's life was spent in the care of her garden on Boyer Circle where she and her husband had planted many fine trees.

MRS. POWELL LEAVES a daughter, Mrs. Fern Powell Davis, who is director of school libraries in Pittsburg Other survivors are her granddaughters, Mrs. L. T. Devol Jr. and Mrs. Donald Ambrose, both of Pleasant Hill. Her four great-grandchildrein are Theresa Lee and Bruce Powell Devol, Deborah Gay and David Lawrence Ambrose. Mrs. Powell's sister, Mrs. Jennie Adkins of Aurora, Oregon, who is 94 years of age, also survives, as well as a nephew, Earl Meador, father of Mrs. C. H. Jessup of Pittsburg.

Former Blind Student Outstanding as Teacher

Under the heading "Blindness No Handicap . . ." the December issue of the P.G.&E. Progress, statewide consumer bulletin, applauds the achievement of Bob Slauson, former local high school student who graduated from Acalanes High in 1951.

Young Slauson, totally blind since an accident in infancy, was the first blind student admitted to the Lafayette high school. After graduating from Acalanes, Slauson studied at the University of California where he worked his way through college by repairing radios.

Slauson, now 26, is in his third year as an instructor in science and math at Mendocino Union High School, where he is reported to have earned, "an excellent record in his dedicated career of helping young men and women."

He teaches eighth grade math, physics, geometry and beginning and advanced algebra.

According to the article in the P.G.&E. Progress, which was enclosed in the company's December billing to customers, Slauson's principal, William J. Larkin, describes Bob as having an "unusual mind."

Lee & Chris Peterson, Bill & Jean White of Lafayette, Norma & Bob Cook of WC.

AT A HACIENDA Circle celebration, the George Redmonds mentioned their European trip forthcoming in Feb. So Mr. Krusi, father of George, turned to his son & dghtr. & asked if they'd like to go too. Oh, Daddy! Same tickets, same itinerary, some lucky people!

From this affair, Bud Loughman wheeled Gordon Martin home in his own personal wheelbarrow, somewhat a neighborhood tradition, turned to ope a door, & Gordon had disappeared. Upped & gone back to the party. The Martins, by the way, are expecting their fifth child.

AND GUESS WHAT Ad Man Charlie Reed got for Christmas! Emmarie Gibbs & the whole brood of Susan, Billy & April! The popular pair, married in Reno Dec. 26, calling their friends in for New Year's Open House, felicitations flowing forth to the beaming just-weds!

sons, both of Laf. . . . Agency people, Berniece Evans, Ron Hildebrand (he's art director) and Henry Marks who writes those crazy radio commercials. Bev & Clint Paine there; he playing the red upright piano in the Taproom, HIS festive vestive of blue & white ticking, trimmed in red, suiting him well as he sat playng the Old-Timers.

To name a few in the early A.M. procession—Jean & Don Harlander, the Marty Martins, photog Don Jones & his wife Shirley, Jim & Eleanor Armstrong, Dr. Doug Bredy, Emmarie's brother Chet Gibbs & wife Chris of Pleasant Hill.

L'Apre Midi d'un YAWN

SMALL WORLD! Five couples of Kaiser Aluminum who've kept NY's together for the past 5 yrs., the last one celebed in Old Cold Chicago, were together this yr. again, by coincidence, right here in Orinda when the Vernon Lorches of Lombardy Lane gave their 8th annual "Hair of the Dog" party on NY's Day.

And a party TDATNB (Aw, you know that one!) is no new experience for the couple who have made THIS their traditional party in all the best places, U.S.A., incl. NY NJ, Lake Forest & Florida.

THE KAISER CREW (Alumiknights? Aluminae?), all Lafayette residents now, were Forest & Martha Baker, John & Lucille Menz, Jane & Howard Holmes, Jean & Walt Gibbs, Eddy & Ralph Sheneman, the latter two arriving w/Hope & Ford Lovelace of Orinda.

Charlie sartorial in a green & black plaid dinner jacket, EVERYBODY scribbling their names on his pristine pleated shirt front, someone centering it w/a heart & date 'Dec. 26.'

COMING & GOING . . . Edie & Earl Cappell, the Roy Mortenson, Gerry & Robert Powell . . . Vernon's parents, Albert & Alice Lorch introducing Mrs. Lorch's sister & family, the Allan Andersons of Burlingame. Former Manhattanites, the senior Lorches since Sept. are at home in Upper Happy Valley.

Afternoon of a yawn . . . The hostess Jennie, her hospitality matching her southern accent, in a blue quilted skirt topped w/a blue jeweled sweater, matching blue slippers. Host Vernon greeting guests, causing chuckles w/a special tie worn annually on this occasion—a bright red one w/a brilliant sunrise painted thereon . . . To match THIS Eyeopener, Vern boasted a blue-checked vest dashingly w/blue flannels.

IN THE PLAYROOM, the children's ChooChoo silent for awhile as guests hugged the TV to watch the Rose Bowl . . . Mary Bishop in berry red . . . A black sheath worn w/a white jeweled cashmere for Jean Gray, there w/Alan, many complimenting them on their pretty early-season when a REAL Santa Claus greeted guests in their driveway.

"Bloody Marys" served from a red punch bowl, New Orleans Fizzes dispensed from a Silver Bowl. (Certainly can't make a mistake THAT way!) . . .

JACK & HELEN Lindemuth of Lafayette admiring the tall living Deodar Xmas Tree. . . . The hostess proud of the decorative piece on the piano, driftwood found by her children Debbie, Marsha & Clint who painted it & presented it to Mother. Here, white & dramatic against the black baby grand, it was hung w/ornaments.

Some there . . . The Fred Crawshaws, Julian Unruhs, David Hagmanns,

FROM THE KAISER crowd, wind that former Orindans Katie & Jack Watson, now in Chicago, recently welcomed their 4th TOT!

All over on Overhill Dr., Jim & Louise Portello, formerly of St. Francis Woods, opened their NOEL-covered door to neighbors Jan. 1 starting the yr. w/a gracious party & sparkling Champagne Toasts. The hostess wearing a rose lace cocktail dress, introducing her son Norman & his wife Jean Portello of St. Stephen's Dr. Another son Kenneth over from SF.

JIM & KAY GORDON there w/her sister Dorothy Wood & Shades of Auld Lang Syne, Dorothy delighted to see Dr. Norman Portello again after several years, he having been her medic through a serious auto mishap.

O Happy Throng . . . Tom & Lucille Fahey, Alice Makinson w/her mother Rose Bouchet Madin . . . Zach & Jean Montgomery coming over, the Alex Morrises . . . Eleanor Schaefer, Liz Cunningham, Mary Andrada admiring a handsome portrait of Marie Antoinette. Hostess Jean Portello being of French ancestry & proud of it.

How prayer and watchfulness brings freshness and newness into human experience will be a topic presented at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Christian Science Churches in this area are located at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda; 1347 Locust street, Walnut Creek; and in Concord at the corner of Grant and Park Streets. Christian Science Society of Pleasant Hill holds its services at the Hillcrest Congregational Church on Gregory Lane.

"Sacrament" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon. Passages to be read from the Bible include the following from Psalms (51:10): "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read the following (4:17-22): "Simply asking that we may love God will never make us love Him; but the longing to be better and holier, expressed in daily watchfulness and in striving to assimilate more of the divine character, will mould and fashion us anew, until we awake in His likeness."

The Golden Text is from Hebrews (13:16): "To do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased."

The Supervisors Act... It's a Tough Proposition!

Last week the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors said "No" to requests for pay increases for several groups of county employees.

It also denied a proposal that the county pay the full premiums for employees' health and welfare plan benefits.

At the same meeting, the board took action to consolidate the personnel department with the county administrator's office.

The board should be commended for these actions.

Certainly there is no real precedent for paying the full premiums for the health and welfare plan. At present the county is paying 50 per cent of the premium, up to $5. This is certainly similar to the practice of private industry.

AS FOR THE PAY increases for some county employees, it would appear that the board acted wisely and with some justice. The board pointed out, in a written statement, that not only those classes of employees who petitioned might be concerned about the competitive position of their wages, but other county employees might feel the same way.

But most important, the board pointed out that the present financial program, viewed from the standpoint of resources to carry present services until June 30, leaves little leeway to meet unforseen contingencies, and does not provide for pay increases at this time.

The board members issued the statement unanimously, without a resolution.

Similarly, in consolidating the personnel department with the county administrator's office, the board merely accepted the recommendations in a report by County Administrator Joseph McBrien.

This action was also unanimous.

IN ORDERING THE consolidation move, the board was supported by the County Taxpayers Association and the heads of key county departments.

It is important that the county administrator have some control over county offices. Frankly, there has been entirely too much wishy-washy handling of some county employees under the previous civil service setup, which was started in 1945.

The civil service commission, however, has not been abolished. In fact, in taking the present action, the board did not take an additional step which would have left the civil service commission an advisory body to the supervisors and an appeal board to adjudicate employee grievances.

In the past, all too frequently, we have seen cases where an employee, who got his hand slapped by his department head, would immediately run to the nearest local attorney to fight.

THINGS WERE getting to the point where it wasn't worth all the misery a department head would have to suffer to discipline an employee.

Of course, this is all just one aspect of the entire personnel problem, and anybody who has spent any time in an organization of any size knows what a problem personnel can be.

It must he realized that our county employees are well paid, and their working conditions are good.

This is as it should be. By and large, the pay of county employees is equivalent to that found in private industry, and there are many fringe benefits that are not found in private industry.

For instance, county employees enjoy more holidays than most private industry employees.

It should be noted that it took courage on the part of the supervisors to effect these changes. It is scarcely likely to make them popular with the county employees.

FURTHERMORE, the list of those opposing this move was formidable, headed, of course, by the County Employees' Association.

It should be evident, though, that this move will strengthen the position of the county administrator. This is only right. It is important that the county administrator have some control over the offices which he is supposed to administrate.

A New Year and New Faces..

There are a host of new faces among Contra Costa County Officials this week.

Five newly-elected men assumed their posts Monday and officially joined the county family.

These include District Attorney John Nejedly, Sheriff Walter F. Young, County School Superintendent Floyd Marchus and Supervisors Thomas Coll and James P. Kenny.

We wish them all the best of luck. It is certain that they will have their work cut out for them, because administering to the needs of this county is no small task.

This is also a new calendar year—we are starting out with a new slate. These men who have been elected are all good men, qualified and capable. They can do a job if they want to.

THEY MUST REMEMBER that they have one primary responsibility — a responsibility to the taxpayers.

The "gravy train" days of "cow-county" government are over. We are a growing and maturing county now—a county with responsible residents and tax payers who have a right to demand clean, honest government.

We expect each of these men to do a good job in his own department. Each is qualified to do so. But we also expect each to try and understand the problems of "the other guy."

THIS YEAR should bring less conflict between departments, and more harmony in our county government. In Joseph McBrien we appear to have a qualified and forward-looking county administrator. He will need all the help he can get from department heads and elected officials.

We have a good grand jury operating. It is active and is working hard to study each facet of our county government and to recommend improvements where necessary.

We sincerely hope that the new members of the county family will cooperate with the grand jury committees, and that the board of supervisors will heed the recommendations of the grand jury when they are published in June.

It can be the best year Contra Costa County has ever had. We hope that the newly-elected officials will do their part to make it so.

Anyone for Ice Skating?

By BOB RAPIDA

"Say, Bob," my wife said, "How would you like to go ice skating tonight?"

I gathered all my perceptive powers in trying to figure out what she was getting to and said: "HUH!!"

"Sure, Ray, Joanne, Jack, Shirley, Dave, Gerri, Glen, Helen and several other couples are going down to the skating rink in Walnut Creek and it sounds like real fun," she told me in her most pleasant manner.

"LOOK, DEAR, if you think I'm going down and make a fool of myself in front of 200 people while using my nose for a snow plow, you'r very badly mistaken," I came back, firmly assuring her I wasn't about to go ice skating.

"Besides," I said turning to the more practical aspects, "suppose I bust an arm or crack my skull or-or-or-or-or—"

Don't be a sissy and stop acting like an old man," she retorted to my "sensible argument."

"OK, Let's go ice skating!"

SOME TWO HOURS later and 30 degrees coolere we were in Walnut Creek Ice Skating Rink. After a 10-minute endeavor lacing up at least 100 yards of twine (sometimes called skate lacing) and finding that I suffer from two defective ankles, a horribly inadequate sense of balance and as much experience as a fly looking up at the swatter, I sortied forth (with hand on rail) to trip the light fantastic, but found myself to be only tripping and landing with a mighty THUD.

Earlier, I had been informed that our friends were either novices to the skating rink or completely unfamiliar with the sharp blades which have a magnetic tendency to strike one against the other causing sudden disaster.

As I looked up from my icy chair in the middle of the rink here were these same novices making like Sonja Heinies and Dick Buttons while I barely could manage to stand up after falling.

WITHIN MOMENTS I really got the hang of things and felt exactly like a Frick and Frack demonstration of what not to do while ice skating.

Several guiding hands were extended—a warm spirit of friendship cushioned the falls and by the time the rink closed, we were well on our way to making plans for another trip to the rink.

In fact, methinks that our 5-year-old son will get a set of skates for his birthday next month—Size 10.

Premature Babies Flown To EB Hospital

Rochelle Burrte Sanders, 2 days, and Billy Franklin Embry, 2 weeks, both premature babies, were flown to Children's Hospital of the East Bay in Oakland from Alturas, Modoc County. Alturas is 45 miles south of the Oregon border.

The private, one-engine plane, a Beachcraft Bonanza owned by Pacific States Aviation, which has been used in many rescues of skiers and in other emergencies, left Buchanan Field. Warren Boggess was the pilot.

Aboard was Dr. Florence Char, pediatric cardiologist on the staff of Children's Hospital of the East Bay. Dr. Char carried a specially-designed portable incubator loaned by Acme Ambulance Company, in which the children were returned to Children's Hospital. Dr. Char also carried a portable oxygen unit.

The plane landed at the Oakland Airport. The youngsters were described as in satisfactory condition after they arrived. They were taken to Children's Hospital by Acme Ambulance.

WORSHIP TOGETHER THIS WEEK

Somewhere in your town a man you may have never seen waits hopefully for you.

He is a minister. A priest. A rabbi. A man used to speaking out . . . making decisions . . . taking action for himself, for his congregation and his community. But where you're concerned, he can only wait and hope you will come.

He holds something in trust for you—the powerful, crucial first introduction to Faith. And he is anxious to be able to pass it on.

The strength and confidence of Faith can mean many things to many men . . . and to the families who count on them. So together with your family start to find that Faith this week.

Five Limbs Lost in Gale! Yo-Ho-Ho at a Blow Tale:

By MARIE MONAHAN

January brings the rains, rattling all the window panes.

AND THE FIRST chance we have to get some solid sleep, now the merry marathon has subsided, what happens?

Waves of wind whip & lash against the old homestead. And high on OUR hill, it was like being berthed on a boat in the middle of the Atalantic. How About You? 'Twas a Whale of a Gale, an ill wind that blew So Good it ripped five heavy limbs from one sound & ancient old oak.

HOLIDAYS OVER . . . And it's Ho Hum, There's No Place Like Home. And all THAT social life anyways. Who did you think you were? Perle Mesta? Elsa Maxwell? C'mon, admit it's a treat to curl up with TV on Saturday night, any old night, instead of making sweet talk to people you won't see again 'til next Christmas. Aw, go on!

This is the month now of lazy loafing, the Lethargic Time. We've all had our fill of fruit cake & eggnog, all that Rich Living. It's Back to the Simple Life. Hamburgers & good old Jello!

IT'S TIME TO pick up the pieces, time to dig out from under.

UP, Languid Soul, trod not over that tissue again! STILL presents & assorted boxes scattered throughout the house, a few left-over Housguests too, maybe?

PILES OF NEW games & puzzles played with the kids on the floor in THEIR fashion, laying on stomach, derriere in the air, game board out front and No Wonder, your aching back! All Scrunched Up? We're stiff as a Tin Soldier, too.

JANUARY! And the forlorn sight of tossed-out trees, denuded & dry, still trying to maintain their dignity & hold their heads up, poor things!

TRACES OF TINSEL & celebrative serpentine kicking around, candy cane crumbs in the corner of the sofa & remnants of wrappings & ribbons playing hide & seek with the vacuum cleaner.

The Big Holiday Nut Bowl.

LONG ON SHELLS, but short on nuts.

New Bikes & Trikes in the garage but the bills STILL not in the mail box. And taxes, infernal, Internal!

AND THE PROFUSION of broken toys. Already! The plastic things so inferior to the solid metal ones of Our Day. The whine & wail of vacationing children—"Gee, WHAT's there to do?" and Santa Claus only a few weeks gone, Shame!

Then Back to School in new jeans & shirts & raincoated & rubberbooted boys stopping in the heavy downpour to set paper-boats to sail in swirling gutters. Country kids kerplunkng through puddles, just a few feet from the front door. And the new carpeting.

THE RED OF CHRISTMAS giving 'way to the red of Valentines in the stores . . . And couldn't they give us a couple of weeks break between Kris & Cupid!

The Year is So Young. Funny we feel So Old!

Inside Out...

Anyone for Cake Baking? Let's Escape this Rut!

By JOYCE BARNUM

Are you in a rut?

Most of us are. Sometimes the rut has all the aspects of running around in a squirrel cage, so hectic is the pace. Another is the rut of being bogged down in dull routine. The worst of all is the one of smug complacency.

No matter where you live in Central Contra Costa County, a high school is no more than a half hour's drive from your home.

Starting Monday night these schools began a new semester with a variety of classes offered for adults.

Eliminate the negative.

IT'S NOT TOO late to join one of these classes and get out of your rut. If life's pace is hectic, pick a course that requires some time for quiet contemplation. If dullness and routine are your rut, seek a stimulating course. If you're feeling complacent, choose one that will jolt you.

Frequently, complaints are heard that these courses are nothing but frills and merely add to the already heavy load the taxpayer must bear.

"Cake Decorating" sounds the frilliest and silliest of courses. Of the adult school curriculum, this one has had more than its share of detractors.

BUT DO THESE detractors know that the student cake decorators bake their own cakes at home, learn the art of adding eye appeal to their delicacies, develop pride in these accomplishments, and then . . . often donate them to a worthy cause?

We're thinking of the group of women who, each week, gave their beautifully decorated cakes to the shelter area at juvenile hall.

The youngsters in the shelter area are there through their parents' delinquency rather than their own. Sometimes their birthdays coincide with their stays at juvenile hall.

Often the occasion is a high point in their young lives, because for the very first time they have a glamorous birthday cake to share with the other youngsters who have sung Happy Birthday to them at dinner.

WE KNOW OF one wonderful woman, with four happy children of her own, who always baked two cakes to decorate at class. One was for her own family and the second was sent to the freezer at juvenile hall to be used for those less fortunate youngsters living in the institutional home.

Are the busy detractors of "frill" courses as constructive?

Accentuate the positive.

The curriculum is filled with a variety of courses, which can become as useful as you, yourself, make them.

Drop around to your nearest school Monday night and see for yourself.

Letters to The Editor

NOTHING BUT THE . . .

DEAR EDITOR:

The people of Orinda and Lafayette were complimented by a local anti-fluoridation committee.

The selection of these areas was a tribute to the support which residents have given toward fluoridating the water supply of the East Bay Municipal Utility District.

The endorsements of the 160,387-member AMA, and the thousands of members of the American Dental Association are not in agreement with the resolution of the 15,000-member Association of American Physicians and Surgeons.

Locally, the children of Antioch, Gregory Gardens, and San Francisco have an opportunity for better dental health, an opportunity currently denied to OUR children.

RICHARD W. LELAND

AMES HITS MARK

DEAR EDITOR:

In Steve Ames' story about Mr. Dundas and his answers to our problem of getting in and out of Safeway's lot from Moraga Road, there is one solution which Mr. Dundas doesn't seem to have considered.

If Safeway and Bank of America parking lots had a joint entrance, it would tie in directly with the signal at the corner of Diablo and Moraga and completely eliminate two very dangerous problems.

THE BANK lot now has an entrance which ties in, and a very dangerous exit—although a great many people are using this entrance as an exit in order to be a little safer in trying to cross Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

A joint entrance and exit to both lots that fed directly and squarely into the crossing signal would possibly be too logical for Martinez minds who leave us with a problem of crossing two lanes of traffic at Pleasant Hill and are apparently going to make it harder to get in and out of Walnut Creek.

At least the hole-in-the-fence at El Nido finally solved the Upper Happy Valley problem.

IF I SOUND a little bitter and disillusioned, it's because I am.

Would it be too much for the traffic engineers at Martinez to consider a sane and sensible solution to the Safeway lot and the exit from the Bank of America?

No doubt they envision everyone using the Oak Hill entrance-exit to Safeway—narrow, hilly, blind, awkward, and very dangerous even now with practically no one using it, and with a very awkward corner for turning left on Mt. Diablo.

Surely Safeway and the Bank of America would be happy to make it safer and easier for customers, if they are allowed to do so.

If Mr. Dundas cooperates, perhaps we can all have a safer New Year.

MRS. A. R. HOLLAND

GARGANTUA PARK?

Dear Editor:

The following letter has been sent by me to the Board of Directors of the East Bay Municipal Utility District:

Six years ago I left Berkeley, where I grew up, and 36 years ago I left Ireland, where I was born.

WE GREW UP only minutes away from Wildcat Canyon, where we climbed over the barbed wire fence to explore the field, woods, streams and reservoirs now a part of Tilden Regional Park.

We often roamed clear across the hills down to San Pablo Reservoir and always remarked how wonderful it would be if the reservoir and surrounding hills were also available for hiking, picnicking and further exploring.

I can still remember the controversy that arose when some of you and probably your predecessors, declared what is now Tilden Park as surplus land.

Should it be subdivided by the real estate business and forever made inaccessible for public enjoyment?

Or should the East Bay emulate the foresight of the fathers of San Francisco and New York and provide outdoor release from the confinements of paved streets and buildings?

Fortunately, the wisest decision was made.

Look at the reward!

NOW HISTORY is repeating itself, as you once more have made your surplus property available.

This land is rapidly becoming —if it has not already become— more and more essential for outdoor recreation.

With the Gargantuan spread of Suburbia flowing eastward through the tunnel and creeping southward from the Straits, the need for more park and picnic space is obvious and inescapable.

YOU HAVE HELD this land inoperative for water supply many years already.

Certainly it should not be too much to ask that you delay its disposition a few more years.

I would urge you to allow time for both citizen groups and various organizations of public officials to study, develop and present plans for public acquisition of your surplus property.

Why not tomorrow's Richmonders, Berkleyites, Oaklanders, Orindans, Moragans, Lafayettians, Walnut Creekers and those from yet unconceived communities.

Here Is a Petition You Will Want to Sign

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Please sign the petition below. Ask your spouse to sign and anyone else in your home over 21. You do not have to be a registered voter but must be over 21. If you will, take the petition to your neighbors. But don't bother, if you don't have time.

The petition asks the Governor and California legislature to enact legislation "to make mandatory a 30-year minimum sentence, without parole, for any person convicted of selling heroin or other addictive drug in a manner not permitted by law."

Goal is YOUR signature

Remember, several weeks ago I wrote of the tragic consequences of teen-agers becoming addicted to narcotics. I reported that Elks Lodges of California have become vitally concerned with this problem and are distributing thousands of petitions. Their goal is 2 million signatures to present to the governor and the legislature.

The Mt. Diablo P.T.A. has joined them locally. The Elks have been joined on a state-wide basis by the Moose, Eagles, American Legion, Lions and others.

I suggested that you sign the petitions when they were brought around. However, thousands of residents in our community have been missed, so here is an opportunity for you to go on record.

Below the petition, you'll find some additional facts on this problem. I hope you'll sign the petition and mail it to The Sun. The envelopes will be forwarded to the Elks committee.

Petition

GOVERNOR AND CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

We, the undersigned, citizens of the State of California, being fully aware of the destructive effects of narcotics upon our citizens, the rapid rate of increase in narcotic addiction among teen aged children, and being determined to stop this menace to our families and future citizens, hereby demand, that during the coming session of the California Legislature, the State Assembly and the State Senate respectively, enact legislation to make mandatory a 30 year minimum sentence, without parole, for any person convicted of selling hereoin or other addictive drug in a manner not permitted by law.

Signer does not have to be a registered voter, but must be over age 21)

Here are some pertinent facts to consider:

The enslavement of our teen-aged children to illicit narcotics is rapidly becoming a national tragedy. It is carried on in every community as a full fledged business, accounts for about 1 million dollars each day in California and is the most heinous crime which can be perpetrated.

Only one to three shots of heroin are required to create a confirmed addict. Thereafter, that addict can look forward to only two things as his or her complete future, the inside of jails or the slab in the morgue. Medical annals record no cure.

Who are most susceptible

Children between 14 to 18 are the most susceptible to narcotic addiction. At that age they are most willing and most likely to try some form of narcotics, with proper urging. The peddler uses every trick and device to introduce marijuana and pills to his potential victim. After the first try, the step is short to heroin and a lifetime customer for the peddler is created.

The addict is confirmed and can never stop. Thereafter the addict must steal, rob or kill to bring him the necessary $30 to $100 daily which is required to fulfill the need for narcotics. Any addict must have shots spaced at regular intervals or suffer unbelievable agony and when the drug is lacking the addict is extremely dangerous.

With the dealer in narcotics the long margin of profit serves at once as his principal attraction and means of hiring the best legal defense. This profit also provides ample funds with which to purchase special consideration, where available. The record is long of cases where many prior convictions have been cancelled, extremely light sentences and even weekends in jail have been imposed upon conviction. Then there is always the hazard of early parole.

One ounce of refined heroin outside the United States has a market value of $30. When smuggled in and cut with many ounces of milk sugar, this same ounce will retail from $3,000 to $5,000.

Yes, your children and mine

If our children live normally and associate with other children we may rest assured they will be exposed to narcotics. Such exposure and enticement is the business of the peddler. He will make a determined effort to have them try some form of narcotics. Many will fall victim. They have in the past. They will in the future. This is the manner in which most addicts are made. None are immune who live in or near populous areas.

The Los Angeles Times reported in September, 1957, an increase in narcotic addiction of 750 per cent between 1950 and 1956.

The U. S. Senate Committee on narcotics reported in 1956 that more than 50 per cent of all crime was due to narcotics.

It is quite obvious that as individuals we are helpless and as such cannot combat the situation. In the past many bills have been presented in the legislature by well meaning legislators, which were designed to accomplish the very purpose we seek. The bills met inevitable death in the JUDICIARY COMMITTEE. The overpowering effect of some men's quest for money has proven far too strong.

Thus, it becomes clear that the only weapon which the people have for their defense is a determined unity of purpose and a means of demonstrating such unity of purpose. A thoroughly aroused and determined public can and will force the enactment of adequate laws for the control of illicit narcotics.

The State of Ohio enacted a law for control of narcotics in September, 1955. During the year immediately following their narcotic arrests and narcotic inspired crime dropped to a fraction of its former level. Their law was successful because it made sentence mandatory and denied parole.

New Year's Athletes To Make Debut Today

Miramonte Quint Remains Favorite to Grab Crown

The Foothill Division consisting of Acalanes, Las Lomas, San Ramon and Piedmont, opens league play with a round of games tonight.

Miramonte, the pre-season favorite on the basis of an undefeated season to date, draws a bye with their first test coming Tuesday afternoon at Acalanes.

Miramonte, ably coached by Bob Callan, has developed a balanced unity that has produced a club with a good offense and a variable defense that augments any situation.

Acalanes and Las Lomas both have good clubs with adequate size and experience, but it remains to be seen if they can catch the Miramonte five that has a habit of coming through in the clutch.

Tonight's games all open at 7 with Piedmont at San Ramon and Las Lomas at Acalanes.

Tuesday afternoon with the Bees starting at 3:30, Miramonte plays at Acalanes and Piedmont at Las Lomas with San Ramon getting the bye.

Wrestlers Take to Mats This P.M. For Opening of 1959 Foothill Circuit

The wrestling season for the Foothill League officially opens this afternoon with the opening matches starting at 3:30 p.m.

Acalanes and Miramonte enter the league with a year's experience behind them while San Ramon and Las Lomas are making their first try at the mat game.

Matches on tap this afternoon find Las Lomas at Acalanes and Miramonte testing San Ramon at Danville.

Thursday, Miramonte comes to Acalanes and San Ramon meets Las Lomas at the Walnut Creek gym next Friday.

Acalanes has a practice match with Pittsburg at Acalanes next Friday.

Wolves Nab Pair from Indian Five

San Ramon turned in a pair of wins over John Swett High of Crockett in games played at Danville Tuesday afternoon.

The varsity game was a come through performance when top strategy on the part of San Ramon Coach Bob Vincent paid off with a winning field goal with the ball hitting the mesh as the buzzer sounded for a 36-34 San Ramon win.

THE SCORE came short when with the count tied at 34-all with 55 seconds on the clock, San Ramon called time and with the ball in their possession Coach Vincent decided to pull a ball control act until he had his crew call time again with four seconds to go.

This time they planned a play and when time was in passed the ball to the side, back to the middle and over to forward Erik Kellner who made good on the final second shot from 15 feet out.

San Ramon had taken an early 9-6 first quarter lead and held an 18-15 half time advantage. They held on for a 25-20 margin at the end of the third quarter only to have the visiting Indians get hot at the hoop to tie it up at 34-34 with the clock showing 55 seconds to go when time was called.

KELLNER WAS tops in scoring with 14. Other San Ramon scorers were George Koolery, nine; Mike Kyles, five; Gary Scott, four; Dennis Trouty, two and Ed French, two.

Forward Jim Turned paced the Indians with eight.

Dons Drop Diablo In Varsity Event; Drop Bee Contest

The Diablo Red Devils won the Bee game from the Acalanes Dons Tuesday afternoon when they posted a 39-33 win on the home court.

The Don varsity, however, came up with a come through performance to rap their arch rival 39-30.

The Acalanes crew outscored their opponents in every quarter but the third when Diablo collected eight points to the Don's seven.

It was Acalanes 8-4 at the quarter end 20-12 when the team left the court at half time.

The Dons held their edge the rest of the way and were never headed as they played a stiff man to man defense while hitting on 41 per cent of their shots from the floor.

Point getter for Coach Dan Glines were Dewaine Stults, 11; Bill Yonge, nine; Mel Simpson, six; Paul Colin, three; George McMeans, four; Don Nelson, four; and Mike Kritscher, two.

The San Ramon Bees won by a comfortable margin 39-22 with forwards Larry Pearson and Bruce Wiess each hitting for nine points.

Willie Lightfoot was Crockett's best in the scoring department with eight points.

What Happened to Cal?? Asks Sun Sports Savant

One of the most common questions of the past week has been what happened to Cal in the Rose Bowl?

I, for one, along with a lot of others, let sentiment rule my thinking rather than cold logic and came up predicting an upset for Cal.

The Big Ten has dominated the Rose Bowl without any argument but there are reasons—and it doesn't rest in the coaching. Pete Elliott and several of his coaching staff played in the Big Ten and certainly know the ins and outs.

☆ ☆ ☆

It all comes down to the fact that good coaching with good "horses" is going to beat good coaching with mediocre "horses," and that prety well tells the basic story.

I for one don't like alibis, but let's face basic facts. First, Iowa is the only big time college in the state and gets a majority of the top players.

In California—Stanford, California, UCLA and USC all compete on a top level for the available material.

Secondly, the requirements for entering college—Cal, Stanford and UCLA in particular—are high and only a small percentage can make the grade. In most Big Ten schools a high school diploma is sufficient. If you think that doesn't affect the player situation you had better check.

☆ ☆ ☆

On top of that the "deal" given players is far better than the Pacific Coast Conference "deal" which has stringent rules which one may or may not agree with.

Check Iowa's lineup and you find nine out of the starting 11 were out of state. Check Cal's and see what you get—and that could call for a sharp answer too!

The end result is that Cal, nor any other coast team, is going to compete with the Big Ten so long as the exististing conditions prevail.

So much for so little or so little for so much, depending on how you look at it.

Getting back to the local prep scene the Foothill Division of the Diablo Valley Athletic League is really experiencing growing pains, and in its first year of operation.

Two schools are seeking admission. Alhambra High of Martinez presented an application and now comes Livermore High. Both schools have grown fast and way out of bounds in regards to school size as far as the Eastbay League is concerned.

The problem, like the discussions, are many. What will happen and when remain to be seen—new schools are in the immediate future in both the Acalanes and Diablo districts.

One thing certain—developments will be interesting to watch!

Teachers Ask 'Progressive' Salaries

Representatives of Teacher Education Associations in Contra Costa who are members of the Contra Costa Teachers Interdistrict Finance Committee for Education, today called on school trustees to include long range planning to hold and attract competent teachers.

Other district long range plans for enrollment growth, school housing and other need projections were supported.

Spokesmen for the teacher group commended school districts for their foresight in planning ahead for the expanding needs of education in Contra Costa.

However, teacher committee members expressed "disappointment" that the planning ahead generally fails to include "future plans to hold or attract effective teachers."

The teacher committee reported that, "Basically, the real question isn't whether or not teachers should be paid more. The real issue is what kind of teachers will children have?"

The committee observed that despite arguments that "teachers are 'well off'," there is still a teacher shortage.

"Competent teachers and most college graduates continue to be attracted to other fields which offer more tangible rewards—all to the detriment of the classroom and the children of the community," Interdistrict representatives insisted.

Interdistrict Committee members said that, "There is no excuse for not planning now for salaries that progress over several years time towards a goal that insures each district in Contra Costa the best people for teachers in the county's classrooms."

Hardwood Title Split by Knights, PH

The Las Lomas Knights played host to the Pleasant Hill Rams Tuesday afternoon and each came up with a win.

The Rams copped the Bee go 42-37 while the Knight varsity wound up the afternoon's play with a 49-40 win.

THE BEE GAME was close throughout with the Rams leading 26-24 at the half and 34-32 at the end of the third quarter.

The varsity game followed pretty much the same pattern being a touch and go matter all of the way.

The Knights outscored the visitors 12-10 in the opening quarter and it was an even steven second period.

LAS LOMAS pulled ahead another four points in the third quarter as they took a 31-25 lead.

The Rams came fast in the final quarter collecting a substantial 15 points but the Knights did a bit of scoring of their own connecting for 18 points with forward Tom Nichols accounting for 11.

Nichols had hit for six in the first quarter to make it 17 for the game to tie for scoring honors with teammate forward Clark Ransome.

Forward Sid Maestre with 15 and guard Bill Locatelli with 11 were tops for the Pleasant Hill five.

Motorboat Serial Must be 3 Inches

"Not less than three inches high" will remain the specified vertical dimension for bow numbers on boats to be numbered under the Federal Boating Act of 1958.

Coast Guard recommendations for implementing the new act had included a change of the dimensions of identifying boat numbers to four inches. But voluminous objections led the Coast Guard Merchant Marine Council to retain the former "not less than three-inch" specifications following the public hearing on December 9.

This and other changes made by the council will be sent to the Coast Guard commandant for approval.

Legion Post Will Greet 9th District

The American Legion Post and Auxiliary Unit 115 of Walnut Creek will host the 9th District of Contra Costa County next Friday at 8 p.m. at the Veterans Memorial Building on Locust Street.

Plans are underway for a rummage sale January 30 and 31 at the Veterans Memorial Building.

Those wishing to "unload their attics" may contact Robert Mairs of the Post, or Mrs. Robert Stickel of the auxiliary.

Mrs. Gerald Cuchna extended a "thanks to all" to participants who made the recent Family Fun Night a success.

Matadors Cop Victory over Albany Quint at Miramonte

The Miramonte Matadors enter league play Tuesday in the undefeated class having won every start to date.

Tuesday afternoon the Orinda varsity wrapped up a 43-36 win over Albany.

THE GAME, played at Miramonte, found the Mats off to a fast start taking a 15-10 first quarter lead and making it 29-18 at the half.

Albany did perk up in the second half when they outscored the home club 10-8 in the third quarter and 8-6 in the final period, but really fell short when time ran out.

Dixon Farmer, seeing action as a starter in place of Bob Hudson, out with a heel infection, played three quarters and tied for Miramonte scoring honors with Randy Young when each caged five field goals for ten points besides playing a good floor game.

Albany's Roger Lowell took game scoring honors with 12 points while Randy Olsen had 10.

IN THE BEE game, Albany produced a winner by a 35-22 score after leading 17-9 at the half.

Center Charley Souza paced the win with 12 points while forward Bill Caldwell was the top scorer for Miramonte with eight points.

Ice Hockey Teams To Travel to Several Towns

Sunday the Bears and Panthers of the East Bay Junior Ice Hockey League will play a demonstration game between periods at Berkeley Iceland during the game of the Northern California League.

The boys now playing in the NCL are former members of the East Bay Junior League during the years it was active in Berkeley.

January 18 the Cougars will be traveling to Stockton to play in the first inter-city league game of the season.

Games will also be played with Palo Alto.

Inter-league games are now in progress at the Walnut Creek Ice Rink with the next two games scheduled for Jan. 18. Last Sunday found another excited crowd on hand to watch the Panthers and Wolves fight to a 1-1 tie. In the second game the Tigers beat the Cougars 2-1.

Piedmont Splits Doubleheader on San Lorenzo Wood

Piedmont High played their first practice game before the league opener when they traveled to San Lorenzo and split a doubleheader.

Piedmont paced by guard Ed Volkwein's 12 points, notched a 26-20 win.

The Highlanders found the going a bit tougher in varsity play, however, as they dropped a 30-23 decision.

San Lorenzo took a 9-6 first quarter lead, made it 17-7 at the half when Piedmont scored but a single point in the second frame, forged to a 25-12 third quarter margin and went on to the win despite a late Piedmont spurt in the final canto.

Forward Roger Zinn of San Lorenzo was top point getter with eight while forwards George Tolon and Dave Shaw each had six to lead Piedmont.

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER • YE 4-3818

Around 60 guests were invited to an "Egg Nog Party" at Carol and King Parker's lovely home near Alamo the other evening and in Pleasant Hill a morning "Coffee" was given by Mrs. Tom Gaines for a large group of her friends and neighbors.

Three of the guests were Mrs. George Bruns, Mrs. Charles Bowers and Mrs. Gaines' daughter—Mrs. Fred Blumberg.

A similar party was given by popular "Mil" Klitgaard when she invited some 28 Reliez Valley neighbor-friends for "coffee and." Much, much chit-chat whilst re-hashing the past year's many events.

Loaded with red and green frocks . . .

The glamorous party given by Lou and Jim King was made even more Christmas-ish by the many red and green frocks in evidence. Hostess Lou was absolutely stunning in sleek black.

Jody (Mrs. John) Loop, Billie (Mrs. Don) Campbell and June (Mrs. Mort) Wallen also chose black. Lou (Mrs. Les) McFetridge looked lovely in a red velvet, rhinestone-trimmed sheath and it was a very pretty picture when she sat among Ruth Newhall, Evelyn Eznekier and Mrs. R. Marks—all wearing holiday green.

Jackie (Mrs. Louis) LaBrie, Georgine (Mrs. Les) Malloy and Betty (Mrs. Dick) Fulgham were festive in blue-green shades. The same evening Alice and Wayne Goodale invited some 16 of their Berkeley friends for dinner. Right smack during dinner the power went off—but Alice's famous egg-plant souffle was heavenly—even in the dark.

Away from parties for a bit. Barbara and George MacAuliffe recently returned from a week's stay in Las Vegas—Barbara reported the usual wonderful time.

The outgoing board members of the "Larks" honored their past president, Marge (Mrs. Newt) Warburton with a luncheon at Trader Vic's just before the holidays. A nice tribute to a fine gal. Billie Campbell promises to make a full report of the fabulous trip she and Don will be taking: a West Indies cruise?

We joined a group of friends from all around for dinner at the new "Golden Nugget" in Concord. It kind of reminded me of good old "Oscar's" in Oakland except that it is truly streamlined and goldenly elegant. The circle of easy chairs surrounds a dancing fountain now but we were told that there will be huge fires, too. 'Twill be interesting to see how THAT is managed!

It certainly was a round of parties

Peg and Bud Ong have enjoyed two happy weeks with their younger son, Don, home from his studies at Oregon State. On Christmas day about 14 relatives gathered at the Ong home for dinner.

Two "at home" parties were given on New Year's Eve in Pleasant Hill. One by Mr. and Mrs. Keith Twitchell whose guests were the Jack Buffingtons, Charles Bothellos and Nich Berzavichs. The other by the Charles Bowers.

Their guests were the Bev Wades, Robert Morrises, Cliff Thompsons and Jim Conaghns.

One of the most fun and relaxed parties that we went to was the charming open house held at Margaret Ann and Colon Brown's home on Christmas eve afternoon. Most of their guests were Sleepy Hollow neighbors who gathered in the living room and the large, closed lanai which overlooks an irregular pool. Such gay, gay holiday decor and such good, goodies heaped on the ever so artistically draped buffet table. Helping with host duties was the Browns' attractive son, "Scudder," who was home for the holidays. In his senior year at Stanford—Scudder recently appeared in a play "down on the farm" and took his parents completely by surprise when, in the starring role, he turned crooner.

Anyway, a few of their invited guests were the Nels Hamburgs, Wynn Husars, Jim Seamans, Al Johnsons, Lloyd Landstrums, Ed Bergens, Tony Marcus', Robert Boyles, Al McCanns, Coleman Huntleys, Bill Scatenas, Bill Fisets, Harry Pecks, Phil Fields (a popular couple fairly new in our area), Bill Hanfords and Frank Walkers.

With a lovely guest of honor . . .

Another event at the Browns' home was a gala New Year's Eve party given by Scudder. The guest of honor was Maralyn (simply gorgeous) Carlson of Minneapolis. Maralyn attends Smith College. Most of the other guests were Stanford classmates who danced on through the "wee" hours—happily ducking the colorful streamers and hundreds of balloons. A midnight supper was served, of course.

Then, on the 27th the "Dianas" (of the Lincoln Children's Foster Home Service) and the "Bobolinks" (of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center) joined forces in presenting a casual and "real fun" dance at the Oak Spring Recreation Hall. There were streamers and balloons there, too, and scads of sandwiches, cakes and cookies, all made by these energetic lasses, plus gallons of soft drinks. "Bobolink" president, Judy Courtright, was there with Volney Howard and the "Diana" president, Sue Holmes, was escorted by Dixon Farmer.

Four others were Gay Cruz with Dick Silva and Bonnie Minor with Dave Puddy.

A party before THE party . . .

Preceding the Orinda Country Club dinner-dance on the BIG night the Harry Martins invited many of their friends for an early party. As always, their stunning home was made even more stunning due to Marcelyn's artistic flair. We had to miss the party and the dance—being "duty bound" at the Pleasanton Hotel—but all reports are that this one was the very best—food, music, decor and all. There were lots and lots of young people this year which always makes the dancing more fun.

Some of the Martins' guests were the Stanford Holmgrens, Don Huckes, Frank Dutros, Joseph Langs, Bud Ongs, Bill McGuires, Carroll Petersons, Ernie Abbes, Art Lundblads, Ed Louis', Taylor Robinsons George Morganhans Stanley Dietricks John Curtis' and Bill Wetzels. Especially of note, 'tis said, were the ultra, richly-colored and fantastically high-styled gowns. Viva-l'Orinda!

The following day Bea and Art Comerford opened their Van Tassel Lane home for a kind of "wind up" open house for the "unwound." Not only did their friends love getting together to review the past few glittering weeks but just HAPPENED to press around the laden buffet in the dining room; much the better to not fix supper my dear! THE highlight of the affair—Denise, the Comerfords' "middle daughter" had been "pinned"

Marchus Outlines Changes In County Schools Office

Newly installed County Superintendent of Schools Floyd Marchus, whose assumption of the office marks the first change in the superintendency in 26 years, said today that "some reorganization" of the department is planned.

Dr. Marchus announced the promotion of Assistant County Superintendent Harold De Fraga, a member of the staff for 12 years, to first assistant superintendent.

No other immediate reassignment of staff is contemplated, he added. Like teachers and some other credentialed employees of school districts, the professional members of the county superintendent's staff are employed on the basis of a one-year contract, expiring June 30. There are currently 27.

MARCHUS expects the function of the department to change also. He said:

"Contra Costa County schools have grown to the point where they are providing for themselves many of the services once rendered by the county superintendent's office and are asking for new and different services.

"This transition, already begun during former County Superintendent B. O. Wilson's tenure, is accelerating, and the department must respond with changes.

"As soon as possible we will shift from scheduled to unscheduled services by our staff members. The school districts will be able to ask for services as they need them rather than receiving routine calls from our people. The choice of services will also be up to the districts, and, conversely, the choice of which services requested can be performed will be on a priority basis. Because of limited time and personnel, we can't do everything the schools might wish.

"Our staff is decreasing in size, since the state provides relatively less money per child to the county superintendent as enrollments of the districts increase. This puts more demands on the department and is one of the reasons for some reorganization. The need to utilize staff fully will probably also lead to teaming county department members with local school staff in working on curriculum, etc."

Marchus, who served as research director in the county schools department for nine years, was elected November 4. His predecessor, Wilson, was not a candidate to succeed himself.

Residents Urged to Return March of Dimes Mailers

In an appeal to all residents of Contra Costa County, J. Nolan Stockton, county March of Dimes chairman, urged an early return of March of Dimes mailers.

"Almost 100,000 of these appeals have been mailed to citizens of Contra Costa," Stockton said.

"We now ask our friends and neighbors, who played an important part in making the Salk vaccine possible, to join us in a new and greater war against polio, arthritis, birth defects and virus diseases by sending in the March of Dimes mailers with generous contributions," he continued.

The new, expanded drive, which will continue through February 3, launches a broad scale research into rheumatic diseases affecting at least 11 mililon Americans, and into birth defects which mar the lives of 25,000 infants yearly, Stockton said.

The county chairman also stressed that aid for polio victims must and would continue, adding that "almost 400 children and adults in Contra Costa County have been stricken with polio, and 18 new polio cases were reported here last year."

Stating that direct aid to children through age 18 suffering from arthritis and birth defects is planned by the National Foundation this year, Stockton said that this program must be financed by March of Dimes funds, "pointing up the need for the return of March of Dimes mailers to speed the success of this vital campaign."

Many county-wide events are planned during the drive—Blue Crutch Day, teen-age programs, the traditional Mothers' March, and other special fund raising activities, the chairman declared.

"Success of this drive as in the past will depend on the unselfish and dedicated efforts of many volunteers," Stockton said.

Inaugural Ball For Walt Young

An Inaugural Ball for Sheriff-Elect Walter F. Young will be held at the Holy Ghost Hall in Walnut Creek Saturday, it was announced today.

The ball will feature music by Jack Kennedy and his orchestra and a dinner prepared for celebrants prior to the dancing.

Donations have been set at $5 per person for the dinner and dance and $2 for the dance alone.

Tickets for the dance will be available at the door and the public is invited.

Holy Ghost Hall is located on Boulevard Way in Walnut Creek.

Robin Ann Mark Engaged To William Stephen Platt

By MARIE MONAHAN

A festive champagne party for family friends and relatives at the Robert Mark residence in Orinda recently served to spill forth further bubbles of happiness the announcement of the engagement of the couple's daughter, Robin Ann, to William Stephen Platt.

The pair are graduates of Acalanes High School.

Stephen, son of the Robert R. Platts, formerly of Lafayette and now Oakland residents, is a junior engineering student at the University of California and a member of Phi Sigma Kappa.

ROBIN ANN, who was the first president of the junior auxiliary of the Orinda Orioles for the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, (now called the Doves) was a coed on the San Jose State campus and is currently pursuing art studies at the Oakland Art Institute.

She is the sister of Elizabeth Mark, a Miramonte student, and has a young baby brother, Robert Christopher.

Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Koehler of Oakland and Robert E. Mark and the late Mrs. Mark of Salt Lake City.

STEPHEN IS the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Beahn of San Francisco as well as Mrs. William Cohen of Oakland. He has one sister, Linda Platt, a teacher in the Oakland public schools.

Against a background of fir and pine boughs and traditional Christmas decor, champagne was served from a table covered with an heirloom cloth crocheted by the engaged girl's great great grandmother.

Centering the table was a red and white flower arrangement comprised of sprays of white orchids arranged with garnet roses.

Club Plans Spring Show

The Stanford Women's Club of the East Bay will hold its annual Spring Luncheon and Fashion Show at the Orinda Country Club Feb. 4. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 noon.

The theme of this year's event will be "Fashions For The Queen of Hearts" with clothes presented by Lowell Trautman of Berkeley. Reservations are being handled by Mrs. Sidney Heller, 242 Stantonville Drive, Oakland.

Proceeds of the event will go to the Club's Scholarship Fund.

Committeewomen include the Mesdames William Gulley, Robert Hughey, Bernard Stock, Robert Schlenker, Alan L. Brooks, Albert Tornlof, John R. and Arch M. Favors, all of Lafayette.

Committeewomen from Orinda are the Mesdames Richard L. Burns, Mrs. Edward Mannon, Phillip M. Jelley, Charles A. Legge, Burnell Semrau, James Y. Smith, Frank A. Spencer and Donald Zappettini.

Stahnke Attends Agents' Confab

Leslie S. Stahnke of 2285 Walnut Boulevard, Walnut Creek, attended the Aid Association for Lutherans Annual General Agents' Conference at the home office in Appleton, Wisconsin, this week.

Stahnke's AAL agency serves Synodical Conference Lutherans in this area.

When in doubt while driving—slow down.

Mrs. Huebner on Pacific Tour

Mrs. Oscar Huebner, formerly of Orinda, now residing in Lafayette, sailed in December aboard the liner Mariposa for a two month cruise in the South Pacific.

Traveling with Mrs. Huebner is her life-long friend, Mrs. Gerald Nunan of San Francisco.

Among 75 friends attending the cocktail party at sailing time, were her daughters and sons-in-law, the Messrs. and Mmes. George Simmons, Jr., John Athanson and family, and Robert Hockett and family, all of Lafayette.

Miss Haugen Soon to Wed

The engagement of William Jackson Babcock Jr. and Carol Lee Haugen was announced during the Christmas holidays.

Jack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Babcock of Happy Valley in Lafayette, and Carol is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Selmer Haugen, San Francisco.

Carol attended Lowell High School and Cal where she was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta. She is presently secretary to the purchasing agent at California Physicians Service.

Jack graduated from Lafayette Grammar School, Acalanes High and the University of California. He was a member of the Sigma Nu, Triune and Winged Helmet. Prior to his present job with Standard Register Co. as a systems analyst, Jack spent 1½ years in Korea as an infantry lieutenant.

The couple plan an April wedding.

Bells to Peal For Mary Izett

At a New Year's Eve party, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. W. Izett, Moraga Road, Lafayette, announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary, to James Robbeloth of Phoenix, Arizona.

Mary is a graduate of Holy Names High School in Oakland, and attended the University of San Francisco for two years.

She is currently attending the Dickenson Warren Secretarial School in Berkeley.

Jim received his A.B. in phychology at St. Mary's College in June of last year and is now enrolled at the University of Arizona.

They plan to be married in August.

Terri Menz Is Engaged

The engagement of Terri Menz to Charles Franklin of San Francisco was announced Sunday afternoon at a party given at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Menz, 1380 Reliez Valley Road.

Terri, a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority, studied for two years at Syracuse before enrolling last fall at Mills College, where she is an Olney Hall resident.

Charles, who graduated in 1956 from Kansas University, is employed in San Francisco by the New York Life Insurance Company. At KU he was affiliated with Delta Tau Delta.

He first came to the Bay Area as a Navy lieutenant (jg), and was stationed on Treasure Island.

Guests at the announcement party included his mother, Mrs. Kathryn Franklin of Clay Center, Kas.

To Stage 'Gold Daze'

Contra Costa area members of the Oakland Junior League are planning "Daze of Gold," which proved itself such a big moneymaker for community causes when presented last year.

It will be presented again at the Claremont Hotel in Berkeley Feb. 27. Mrs. John Loper is chairman.

The stage show and follies, "Viva La Theatre", will be directed again by Howard Miller of the Jerome Cargill production Agency in New York.

A fashion show and auction of Joseph Magnin modes, with Paul Speegle as auctioneer, will take place in L'Horizon Room.

There will be dancing to Ray Hackett's music in the Garden Room as well as a buffet supper.

Committee chairmen include: From Lafayette, the Mesdames Frank Lord and Johnson Clark; from Orinda, the Mesdames Blake Calder, Harrison Beardsley, Richard Graffis, Joseph Longacre and William Platt.

Safety Body Goal is 100 Members

The annual membership drive of the Contra Costa Safety Council will start tomorrow. The goal is 100 new members.

The Safety Council is the central agency that coordinates and supplements the efforts of local organizations doing safety work.

Members of the Council include rerresentatives of business and professional groups, governmental agencies, school organizations and private citizens.

The Safety Council is a group of people who volunteer to devote a part of their time and substance to making each community a safer place to live and tio raise a family.

The Council pools the safety know-how in this area and makes it available to member organizations and to the public at large.

It aids in activating existing accient prevention programs and initiates safety programs where none are in existence. It promotes all phases of accident prevention.

The headquarters of the Safety Council is centrally located at 2093 Salvio Street, Concord, but its area of operation extends from El Sobrante on the west side of Contra Costa County to Brentwood and Byron on the east side.

It includes both incorporated and unincorporated areas.

Betty Wilshusan Now Is Mrs. Don Schuppert

Rev. James Upshaw of the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church performed the rites December 21 which made man and wife of Donald F. Schuppert and Betty Carleen Wilshusen of Walnut Creek.

The couple traveled through Southern California on their honeymoon, and plan to live in Tucson, Arizona.

Betty worn an Empire gown of silk peau de soie, with bodice of seed pearls, embroidered Alencon lance full train, during her wedding.

She was attended by Mrs. Robert Flanner of Walnut Creek, matron of honor, and bridesmaids Miss Gail Penaluna of San Francisco, Mrs. George Blodgett of Oakland, Miss Joan Schuppert, sister of the groom, and Miss Debbie Dean, both of Walnut Creek.

Fred Glosser of San Francisco was best man and ushers were Barry Miller of San Francisco, Robert Kinyon, Richard J. Wilhusen, brother of the bride, and Robert Flaner, all of Walnut Creek.

Betty was given away by her father. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard R. Wilshusen of 440 Bridge Road, Walnut Creek.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. A. Frank Schuppert of 112 Grover Lane, Walnut Creek.

Betty and Donald both graduated from Las Lomas High School. The bride attended Diablo Valley Junior College. The groom is now serving in the U.S. Air Force at Davis Monthan base in Tucson.

Delta Zetas to Hear Talk on Leprosarium

Members of Mt. Diablo Alumnae Chapter of Delta Zeta Sorority will learn more about the Carville, Louisiana, leprosarium, one of their philanthropies, at their meeting on Wednesday at 8 p.m.

It will be held at the home of Mrs. Stephen Johnson Jr., 3981 Los Arabis Drive, Lafayette.

Mrs. Frank Leighton Gibson, who lived at Carville for four years while her husband was an administrative officer there, will tell her experiences and show pictures she took while living there.

She has written a book, "Under the Cliffs of Molokai," and she will review it.

The members are also looking forward to a visit with Mrs. Helen Silvus, the new province director.

Mrs. Walter Cunha will be the co-hostess. All members in the area are invited. If you are planning to attend, please notify Mrs. Johnson or Mrs. Cunha.

Julia French Is Engaged

Mrs. Kendric French of 1632 Live Oak Way, Walnut Creek, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Julia, to Kenneth Maxwell of Sacramento.

Both Julia and Kenneth are students at Diablo Valley College. Kenneth also is a laboratory technician at the Lawrence Radiation laboratory of the University of California and he works in Livermore.

Kenneth's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Larry Maxwell of Sacramento.

The engagement was announced at a New Year's Eve party at the French home. The couple will be married late in January.

Mary Cooper Tells Troth

Miss Mary Alice Cooper of 8 Valley View Drive, Orinda, is engaged to John L. Stoffel Jr. of 27 Ramona Drive, Orinda.

They plan to be married on May 30. The announcement was made at a cocktail party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cooper, the future bride's parents.

John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Stoffel. He attended the University of California and San Jose State College, and is affiliated with Beta Theta Pi.

Miss Cooper attended Holy Names High School.

Shari Kelsch Engaged to Doug Leonard

The engagement of Miss Sari Lynne Kelsch of Pleasant Hill, a 1958 Walnut Festival princess, and Douglas D. Leonard of Walnut Creek, was announced this week.

They plan to be married on June 6 at the Trinity Lutheran Church, Walnut Creek.

The news was told at a Thanksgiving dinner on November 27.

Shari is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Kelsch of 401 LeJean Way, Pleasant Hill.

She attended Harry Ells High School, Richmond, and graduated from Pleasant Hill High in 1958. She is now working as a private secretary in Walnut Creek.

Mr. Leonard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Leonard of 2943 Dorothy Drive, Walnut Creek, and a 1956 graduate of Pleasant Hill High.

He played fullback for the Pleasant Hill High "Rams," is a member of the Accelerators Car Club of Concord, and a member of the Cal-Neva Timing Association.

He is now working as a service station manager in Pleasant Hill.

Pledge Classes Tea at House

The Fall, 1958, Pledge Class of Lambda of Sigma Kappa held the annual Christmas Tea the week before the winter vacation.

Doris Jean Fulkerson, social chairman for the pledge class, was in charge of the tea. In the afternoon the Sigma Kappa pledges received members of the pledge classes from the other 21 sororities on the University of California campus.

WC Woman Photographed By Magazine

While visiting Hawaii with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Mae Sawyer of 2084 Hermine Avenue, Walnut Creek, was photographed by Life Magazine and was told that the picture will probably appear in March or soon after.

Mrs. Sawyer, with Mrs. Ethel Sawyer, both of Hermine Avenue, visited the island of Kauai for about three weeks, and stayed at the Princess Kaiulani Hotel at Waik-ki-ki.

They sailed on the Matsonia on December 3, and returned by plane.

Mrs. Sawyer has been a resident of the area for six years.

Safari Is Republican Semi-Formal

A gala event planned by the Contra Costa County Young Republican group is its "Republican Safari," a semi-formal dance scheduled for January 24 in the Elks club ballroom, 3994 Willow Pass Road, Concord.

Dancing to the music of the Wes Menton orchestra will begin at 9 p.m.

A festive buffet table will feature hors d'oeuvres for guests to enjoy between dances, and another type of intermission fare will be provided by a comic skit on the African theme performed by club members.

Joseph Zablocki of Orinda, the 1958 president of the county organization, will introduce newly-elected officers.

"Tickets for Republicans and their friends may be obtained locally from Mrs. Hans Beetz, 3300 N. Lucile Lane.

The Concord Young Republican group has taken over the chairmanship of the dance.

Mrs. George Mucks is in charge of general arrangements. Her committee has Robert Graham, orchestra; Mrs. Marshall Thompson and William Haskins, entertainment and John Lynch, publicity.

Thetas Honor

Diablo Valley Theta alumnae met last Friday at the home of Mrs. Roland Davies, 3127 Albano Drive, Concord, to celebrate Founders Day.

A candle lighting ceremony was held honoring the four women who founded Kappa Alpha Theta, the first Greek letter sorority known among women.

Mrs. Bruce Gould of San Francisco, president of District Nine, attended. Mrs. J. B. Turner and Mrs. James L. Hennessy were program chairmen.

County Heart Fund Goal Set at $60,000 for 1959

The goal of the 1959 Heart Fund drive, to be conducted throughout Contra Costa County during the month of February, will be $60,000, Chester Bekins, Heart Fund chairman, revealed.

The goal exceeds last year's collection by $14,500, he said.

IN ACCOUNTING for the increased goal, Bekins said, "Despite many advances in the last few years, the heart problem here and throughout the country is still far from controlled. The heart and circulatory diseases continue to account for close to 54 percent of all deaths in the United States annually.

"We must therefore intensify our research activities, for each new scientific discovery, each new drug, diagnostic tool or surgical technique adds to the likelihood of an eventual victory over the cardiovascular diseases," the chairman said.

"Research is costly but it must expand. That is why we have accepted a higher goal for 1959 here in Contra Costa County. The importance of the Heart Association's work makes it essential that we achieve that goal," he declared.

THIS YEAR'S Heart Sunday drive will be staged February 15, a week earlier than in previous years, Bekins pointed out.

He explained, "In other years when Heart Sunday has been scheduled for the weekend of Washington's birthday, we have found many people away over the long weekend So, this year, in order to find more people at home, our big Heart Sunday drive will be held a week earlier."

The major part of the funds collected in Contra Costa County remain here, and a large proportion of contributions is used for research within the state, Bekins said.

He reported that for the past three years, the Contra Costa County Heart Association has been supporting local research programs, as well as contributing to state and national programs of larger scope.

RESEARCH grants have been made for three years to Dr. John W. Gofman of Donner Laboratory at the University of California. This scientist and his associates are working on a project to determine what particular groups are most lively to develop hardening of the arteries.

At present they are conducting tests of diabetic patients and persons whose parents and grandparents died of heart disease to determine if these groups have a special susceptibility to hardening of the arteries.

Dr. I. Lyon Chaikoff of the Department of Physiology, University of California, is also receiving support from the Contra Costa County Heart Association for his research. The investigators are making studies on animals with regard to cholesterol in the diet and blood and its possible relation to the development of hardening of the arteries.

The grant to Dr. Chaikoff was given as a memorial to the late Hal Forsey, Concord resident who served for many years on the Contra Costa County Heart Association Board of Directors.

The question of what relation stress-on-the-job has to heart attacks is under scientific scrutiny at Mt. Zion Hospital, San Francisco, with aid from a grant by the Contra Costa County Heart Association.

DR. RAY H. ROSENMAN, at the hospital's Harold Brunn Institute, is studying the effect of stress on the level of fat in the blood. Tests are being conducted on two groups of men—a group of tax accountants whose vocational stress comes at income tax time and a group of business executives in the Bay Area.

The purpose is to determine whether certain definite personality characteristics are associated with a high incidence of heart attacks and if so, to develop an interview test that may identify individuals in early life who would be likely to have heart attacks in middle age.

Bekins reported that plans are underway for the most extensive coverage of residential areas in the county since the Heart Sunday campaign was organized in 1956.

LOCAL HEART SUNDAY chairmen include: Mrs. William C. Claraty, Mrs. C. C. Willert and Mrs. Gerald W. Allen, Walnut Creek; Mrs. Harold Robinson, Lafayette; Mrs. Edward Winthers, Moraga; Mrs. Wesley J. Smith, Orinda; Mrs. Robert Quigley, Danville; Mrs. Marvin Epstein, Alamo; and Mrs. Boyd Olney Jr., Pleasant Hill and Pacheco.

Dyer is Leader Of Independent Scout Campaign

Robert W. Dyer of Walnut Creek, executive officer for the United Transportation Company of San Francisco, has been appointed chairman of the Walnut Creek Boy Scout Community Drive for Scout funds, which will be launched in late January.

Dyer lives at 21 Maywood Drive, Walnut Creek. Through the years he has been active in the promotion of Boy Scouting. He served as cubmaster, assistant scoutmaster and committeeman of a Boy Scout Troop. He is the Explorer Advisor of Walden Area Citizen's Troop 234. Jim, his son, is a member of Troop 234.

As community chairman, Dyer is developing an organization whereby all parents of Scouts and friends of Scouting in the Walnut Creek area will be contacted in behalf of financial support of Scouting.

Ninety-five percent of all eligible boys living in the Walnut Creek Area are identified with the Boy Scout movement.

The United Crusade has fallen far short of providing the necessary funds to meet the minimum needs. Crusade officials forecast a two-three percent decrease of agency allocations for 1959, due to inadequate funds.

Over one-half of operating budget of the Scout organization must be raised through the sustaining membership campaign. The campaign goal for Walnut Creek and adjacent areas is $21,000.

Tom Clarke, Alamo businessman, is district chairman of the campaign.

Local Youth to Join Benefit Concert Jan. 18

Jazz and the classics will join forces in Oakland January 18 to further the cause of music education in Northern California, and representatives of Contra Costa County communities will be there, playing at full blast.

The internationally celebrated Dave Brubeck Quartet and 100 outstanding high school musicians will present benefit concerts at 3 and 8 p.m. on that Sunday in the Oakland Audtiorium theater.

Youngsters participating include:

Orinda: Thomas Brooks, 25 La Cintilla, clarinet; Mario Guarneri, 58 Orchard Road, trumpet; Bob Newman, 53 Acacia Drive, trombone.

Walnut Creek: Mary Jo Chrisman, 1831 Second Avenue, violin; Larry Fryman, 80 Greenway Drive, bassoon.

PEDESTRIANS BEWARE

More pedestrians are killed in cities while crossing with the traffic signal than are killed while crossing against it. Don't rely blindly on traffic lights, says the California State Automobile Association. Look both ways before crossing streets.

Classes Slated By PTA Council

A six week course in parliamentary procedure will be sponsored by the Mt. Diablo Council, P-TA through the cooperation of the Diablo Valley College beginning Wednesday.

The weekly classes will be held on campus in room 104 of the Technical Education Building.

Instructor for the Wednesday morning course will be Mrs. George Beanston, a member of the State P-TA Board and a former State P-TA parliamentarian. Classes will begin at 9:30 a.m. and conclude at noon, the last half hour open to actual practice of parliamentary procedure.

According to Mrs. Beanston, the course will be of interest not only to all members of the 32nd District, P-TA, but to anyone interested in parliamentary procedure.

When in doubt while driving—slow down.

Cocktail Hour Hors D'oeuvres 'Hit the Spot'

HUNGRY and tired shoppers and business and professional men and women who drop in to the Walnut Room at Mel's Drive-In for refreshment and relaxation are finding the hot hors d'oeuvres, serving during the cocktail hour, much to their liking.

THEIR NEW DINING ROOM will be open soon at Jonson's on Mt. Diablo Boulevard in Lafayette. "Chuck" and "Warren", proprietors indicate. Impromptu songfests around the piano bar contribute much to the air of "good fellowship" which prevails at Jonson's, according to Chuck.

THE EL NIDO RANCHO will host the Lafayette chamber of commerce dinner January 14. One of the highlights of the community's social season, the event is expected to attract some 200 couples. Following the dinner and program, couples will dance to the music of Maurice Anger. Similar dinner meetings are scheduled at the El Nido in the near future by both the Lafayette and Walnut Creek junior chambers.

HOT CHILI BEANS are being dished up more regularly at Al's Polka Dot in the Orinda Village Shopping Center as the weather continues to cool. Alex Morris, owner and manager says he is "pleased with reception of his 'charbroiled' hamburgers." Introduction of the new char-broiler has proven a digestive aid to many of his customers who appreciate the "grease-free" and extra-special hamburgers, he says.

THE CHICKEN MANOR will be a new and welcome addition to the number of fine restaurants along Mt. Diablo Boulevard in Lafayette. Formerly the location of the Huddle Inn, the new dining house is expected to open soon.

REAR LIGHTS

In last year's National Vehicle Safety-Check Program, defective rear lights were the most common fault, reports the California State Automobile Association.

Postmasters Warn Aliens About Deadline

Area postmasters this week advised that the final date for aliens to register is January 31.

The Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952 requires each alien to register if in the United States on January 1, 1959.

Those required to register are aliens residing permanently in the U. S.; aliens admitted for temporary periods; aliens who through violation of the immigration laws are in the U. S. illegally.

Penalty for failure to comply with this act, if convicted, can result in fine, imprisonment or deportation, the postmasters advised.

Shop at home and save. You can expect fast service when you deal with your neighbors.

McCunn to Head Easter Seal Drive In Feb., March

Drummond J. McCunn, superintendent of the Contra Costa Junior College District, will head the 1959 Easter Seal Drive in Contra Costa County, it was announced.

The drive will start February 27 and run through March 29.

McCunn said he had the highest hopes that adequate funds will be raised this year, enabling the Society to continue its effective job in Contra Costa.

He pointed out that the organization operates a shelter workshop as a training center for the handicapped, arranges a summer camp program, conducts preschool training for handicapped youngsters and their mothers, offers counseling services for older groups and their families, and maintains a loan closet of wheel chairs, hospital beds, and other necessary items.

In 31 years as an educator and superintendent, Dr. McCunn has had responsible assignments in local, state and national organizations close to the education of youth and community service.

Before coming to Contra Costa in 1949 as the junior college district's first employee, he was a teacher and later assistant superintendent of Pasadena City Schools.

When in doubt while driving—slow down.

Social Worker to Speak to AAUW On Geriatrics

An authority on socio-medical problems, Miss Evelyn Ketzloch, will speak at 10 a.m. January 19 in the home of Mrs. A. P. Stack, 11 Mira Loma, Orinda.

The program will be sponsored by the Social and Economic Issues section of Orinda Branch, AAUW.

Miss Ketzloch will speak on "The Process of Aging and Its Vicissitudes", a presentation she has given for the In-Service Training Program For Nurses at Highland Hospital in Oakland, where she is a medical social worker.

As a case worker for Alameda County, she has compiled a study of present day awareness of geriatrics.

Interested persons are invited to make arrangements to attend by calling Mrs. Stack, CL 4-2849.

Berkeley Bank Announces Rate For Interest

Berkeley Savings and Loan Association today announced that it would pay 4 per cent interest per annum to savings account holders for the period ending June 30th, 1959.

Sherman Miller, executive vice president of Berkeley Savings, emphasized that the high earnings and strong reserve position of Berkeley Savings, warranted continuance of the 4 per cent interest rate to savers.

TRAFFIC DEATHS

There were more Americans killed in traffic accidents in 1937 than in 1958, reports the California State Automobile Association.

Driving an automobile properly requires undivided attention and courtesy for others, reminds the California State Automobile Association. Always give both when you drive.

Industry Expands, But Employment Does Not . . .

Since World War II industries have spent more money in Contra Costa County than anywhere else in the Bay Area on new or expanded plants, but employment has not gone up proportionately.

In 10 years, according to the San Francisco Bay Area Council, $564,904,000 has been invested in 448 projects to improve production facilities—one dollar out of every three spent in the six-county area.

But the State Department of Employment this year counted some 27,700 manufacturing jobs in the county—just 306 more than the 27,394 listed 11 years ago in a census held by the state chamber of commerce.

ONE OF THE reasons for this is, that although the county has a rapidly expanding population, many residents work elsewhere—the commuter.

Three factors explain why Contra Costa's tremendous investment has not been job producing, department of employment officials point out.

1. A major part of the money spent has been for electric generating facilities—giant plants at Pittsburg and Antioch which, by their nature, are manned by an insignificant number of workers.

2. Poor market conditions and the recent recession hit specially hard the county's three key industries: oil, chemicals and steel.

When in doubt while driving—slow down.
